Golden Rule Halts; Crew Is Arrested

. . . A-Test Pacifist Cruise Fails

Honolulu (AP)—Four pacifists sailed defiantly out of Honolulu harbor en route to the mid-Pacific atomic test zone Thursday only to wind up a few hours later in jail here on contempt of court charges. They accepted jail rather than go free on bail.

The 30-foot ketch Golden Rule and its 4-man crew were intercepted by the Coast Guard shortly after leaving for the Eniwetok area despite a Federal Court injunction. Their aim: A dramatic protest against atom bomb testing.

A cutter stopped the ketch about a mile and a half off shore and took it in tow.

The 4 spurned bail when arraigned on the charges. They were taken to Honolulu's 100-year-old city jail to await a hearing next week—the exact day depending on the court calendar.

They were arrested by a U.S. marshal and 2 deputies as they stepped off the boat at Honolulu.

The penalty for violating a federal court order is at the discretion of the court.

As the Golden Rule was being towed back to Honolulu harbor its skipper, former Navy Lt. Cmdr. Albert Smith Bigelow, related the shortlived voyage to the Associated Press by radiophone.

Heave-To

He said:

"We were about a mile and a half off shore when we were hailed by a Coast Guard cutter. We were asked to heave-to and we did.

"An officer, who identified himself as Robert Hansen, said he had an order for our arrest and told us to accompany him. We said we could not do this and they attached a tow line and are now towing us in."

The arrest was based on a federal court order restraining the Golden Rule and its pacifist crew from leaving Honolulu and forbidding it to enter Eniwetok Atoll in protest of nuclear bomb tests there.

Bigelow, who observed his 52nd birthday Thursday, and his 3 crewmen cast off from Honolulu less than an hour after Federal Judge Jon Wiig ordered a temporary injunction halting the voyage.

Moored

The Golden Rule had been moored here by an earlier restraining order issued April 24.

Bigelow's crewmen are William Huntington, 51, St. James, N.Y.; George Willoughby, 43, Blackwood Terrance, N.J., executive secretary of the Central Committee for Conscientious objectors and Orion Sherwood, 28, a science teacher from Poughkeepsie, N.Y. Sherwood is a Methodist, the others Quakers.

(Willoughby has made frequent visits to Lincoln as secretary of the American Friends Service Committee in the midwest, with offices in Des Moines. At present he is in charge of the Peace section of the Friends Service Committee in the Philadelphia central headquarters.

(In 1950 he was at the University of Nebraska campus participating in an Institute on International Relations, under the auspices of several Lincoln organizations. Since that time he has visited Lincoln on various Friends' projects.)

Ouster Asked

Reykjavik, Iceland (AP) — A group of trade union representatives petitioned the government to oust U. S. armed forces from Iceland.

They also called for fixing territorial fishing limits at 12 miles offshore. Foreign trawlers are already ruled out of areas within a line connecting the most prominent coastal headlands.

–Hazard To Spacemen–

New Space Danger Told

Unidentified Form Of Radiation Found By 2 U.S. Satellites

Washington (AP) — Discovery of an unidentified form of radiation which might imperil space fliers was reported Thursday.

Scientists said that if the radiation is the kind they believe it is, an unprotected man would get as much radiation in 2 hours as he can safely tolerate over the span of a week. To guard him in any long-term flight would require 100 pounds of lead shielding per man.

The discovery was made during the present flights of the 2 explorer satellites.

Project scientists said they feel highly confident the radiation — intense enough to cause cosmic-ray counting instruments aboard the satellites to konk out at times — consists mostly of electrons in clouds of electrified hydrogen gas from the sun.

These electrons, striking the satellite, would generate X-rays which would constitute the direct hazard to an unprotected man.

The radiation striking the satellites is rated as 1,000 times more intense than cosmic rays.

Hazard To Man

Dr. James Van Allen of the University of Iowa, who reported the discovery, told reporters it's unlikely that cosmic rays, in themselves, constitute a biological hazard to man. But he indicated that the newly found radiation, if it's nature is what it's strongly believed to be, definitely would be such a hazard.

The discovery is considered so important that a top official of the International Geophysical Year (IGY) said there's a possibility of a hurry-up program designed to develop special instruments to study the radiation — and send these instruments aloft in another satellite as soon as possible.

Dr. Richard Porter, head of the satellite panel for the American IGY committee, announced he is now sounding out directors of the satellite project on the idea.

The discovery was announced at a special meeting of the National Academy of Sciences and the American Physical Society. The session was called to hear first reports of scientific information of various kinds picked up by Explorer 1, launched Jan. 31, and Explorer 3, launched March 26.

Bomarc Missile Is Tested

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP)—Another potent Bomarc ground-to-air interceptor missile was test fired Thursday at a pilotless bomber drone target somewhere in the southeast Atlantic.

Air Force officials announced later that the black-hulled missile had a normal launching, but they declined to elaborate.

The Bomarc, winding up a series of highly successful tests here, streaked skyward for about 5 seconds before curving toward a level course.

The Bomarc, rated the most effective U.S. air defense weapon to date, travels at supersonic speed. Its complex guidance system enables the Bomarc to seek and destroy enemy aircraft some 250 miles before they reach the American coast.

Pump Primed

Miami, Fla.(AP)—A mortgage firm primed Miami's economic pump with $4,500 in bonuses to employes.

The only string on it: That "employes spend the money—and spend it to buy something they might not otherwise have purchased."

The J. I. Kislak Mortgage Corp. handed out the bonuses in $2 bills to its 47 workers to boost a Miami "buy now" campaign, scheduled to start May 9.

Southwest Flooding Continues

. . . Levees Bolstered

Texarkana, Tex. (INS) — Workers tirelessly sandbagged a battered levee near Garland, Ark., Thursday while warily watching angry skies and a swollen creek which threatens the homes of 1,600 persons and 31,000 acres of rich farmland near Texarkana.

Arkansas National Guardsmen, Air Force personnel and volunteers worked through the night in a light rain.

Boat owners in the area have been put on a 30-minute alert to rescue residents remaining in the bottomlands should the levee break.

Guard officers said the situation is "grave" and if another hard rain falls the levee is almost certain to go.

Many Move

Many of the 1,600 persons who live on the farmlands which are threatened already have moved, taking with them some of their possessions.

They took refuge in the Garland City Gymnasium. The town of 400 persons is on high ground and is not threatened by the waters of McKinley Bayou, even if the levee breaks.

Meanwhile, up to 3 inches of rain drenched Wichita Falls in north Texas, causing flash floods but only minor damage. Streets were closed, cars stalled.

An electrical storm at Mineral Wells, about 90 miles southeast of Wichita Falls, knocked out power in that city for a short time.

Auto-Painting Spree Admitted

Two teenage boys admitted to police Thursday that they had painted an undetermined number of cars with white paint while the cars were parked near Irving School Tuesday night.

A 16-year-old and a 14-year-old told juvenile authorities a third boy was in the car during the painting but he had no part in it, they said, so he is not being further investigated, police said.

The 2 admitted painting approximately 8 cars with white paint but denied using the green paint mentioned in several reports received by police.

Arab World Is Nasser's Target, Israel Editor Says

By Virgil Falloon

The Arab world, not Israel, is the target of Nasser, according to Ted R. Lurie, editor of the Jerusalem Post, and the Egyptian premier is using the cold war to his advantage.

A former American newspaperman, Lurie was a luncheon guest of A. Q. Schimmel of Lincoln Thursday and spoke at the University of Nebraska School of Journalism.

"The Middle East crisis is entirely due to the cold war being focused on that area," he said. "It's not one of relations between Israel and the Arab neighbors or Egypt, but is part of the power struggle for the Middle East."

Lurie predicted a lull in border incidents while Nasser's position is consolidated. His immediate target is the Arab world with current designs on Jordan and Lebanon, the Israeli editor said.

Lurie said Israel is not in immediate danger because as a staunch West ally she serves as a springboard for Nasser's anti-West propaganda when Russian favor is being sought.

In playing both ends against the middle, Nasser has been clever, but also realizes he is treading on dangerous ground, the editor said.

Lurie heads the only English-language newspaper in Israel. The 25-year-old Post has a large circulation among non-nationals.

The Israeli press is free, he said. Only references to military installations, affairs, and budget are censored.

Lurie was educated in New York schools and Cornell University. He newspapered briefly in the area before joining The Post.

He is briefly swinging through the mid-west before returning home. He attended the recently-concluded International Press Institute held in New York City.

NFO District Supports Broadened Tax Base

The first of Nebraska's major farm organizations has declared itself as to the stand it will take on the controversial proposal to broaden the state's tax base.

The 1st Congressional District of the Nebraska chapter of the National Farmer's Organization Thursday night adopted a resolution in favor of the Nebraska Tax Equity Council proposal to broaden the state tax base, abolish use of the property tax for the general fund and provide support for the common schools.

"The property tax question is vital for the state's farmers," Pearle Finigan, state NFO president said. "I would strongly recommend either a sales or an income tax, but would prefer a 3% sales tax, rather than have both."

One Waverly farmer said that "Nebraska taxation at present is the horse and buggy type." He said that non-property owners send their kids to school and "every property owner pays for their education."

Although the resolution does not assume official backing by the state-wide NFO, according to Finigan, "I think most of the 16,000-member NFO will go along with the proposal." He said that "too many people" don't pay any taxes whatsoever under the property tax levy.

Most members at the NFO meeting declared themselves in favor of any proposal submitted to the Unicameral that would ease the property tax burden of the farmer. They felt that farmers paid "the biggest share" under a property assessment system.

A Walton farmer said he was talking to a neighbor recently, and when he asked the farmer why he didn't buy a piece of land across the road, the neighbor replied, "Hell, no! My taxes are bad enough already."

Chicagoan Killed In 2-Car Crash

. . . Near Geneva

Geneva, Neb. — A Chicago man was killed and 2 other Illinois residents were injured Thursday in a 2-car crash which occurred when one vehicle swerved out of control on a curve.

Dead is John C. Newell, 66, a passenger in a northbound car driven by Wanda J. Juberski, 52, of Chicago. She and the driver of the southbound car, William R. Sanders, 39, of Geneva, Ill., were reported in fair condition at a Hebron hospital late Thursday.

Albert Tobiassen, Fillmore County sheriff, said the collision occurred about 7 miles south and one mile east of Geneva on U.S. 81. The Kuberski auto, he said, evidently went out of control and collided with the car driven by Sanders.

Sanders suffered a broken arm and chest injuries, and Mrs. Kuberski, chest injuries. No other passengers were in the 2 Illinois cars.

Nebraska's traffic death toll was raised to 80 as a result of the accident. A year ago the total was 77 on May 1.

$4,250,000 Asked For Lincoln Base

Washington —The Defense Department Thursday asked Congress for authorization of $4,250,000 in construction funds for the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The request was part of a $1,684,361,000 military construction program project. A separate appropriation bill will be necessary to provide construction funds.

The projects mostly are for operational and training facilities and troop housing.

U.S. Extends Olive Branch

Dulles Says We Will Cut Arctic Flights If Soviet Accepts Polar Inspection Plan

Washington (AP)—The United States offered Thursday to consider cutting down its H-bomb flights in the Arctic if Russia accepts the U. S. North Pole inspection plan.

Secretary of State Dulles made the proposal at a news conference. He emphasized that Russian acceptance or rejection will affect the question of whether President Eisenhower goes to a summit conference.

Dulles' olive branch mood matched that of Eisenhower at a news conference the previous day. The President said then he felt more sadness than anger at Russia's derisive rejection of his Arctic inspection plan and at Soviet outcries against U.S. nuclear alert flights in the area.

Secret Approaches

Dulles disclosed new secret approaches to Russia, in Washington and New York, in an effort to sell the Soviets on the polar proposal. If accepted, he said, the proposal could mark a turning point in the cold war and possibly bring further disarmament agreements.

While Dulles' news conference dealt mostly with this issue, he also said:

1. The United States hopes to have normal friendly relations with the United Arab Republic—that U.S. release of 26 million dollars in foreign Egyptian assets was almost automatic when President Nasser reached agreement on compensating former owners of the Suez Canal.

2. The U.S. government has no legal right to prevent private U.S. citizens from fighting in Indonesia's rebellion; but the government's own policy of careful neutrality will be continued.

Tests Decision Pondered

3. President Eisenhower has not yet decided whether to suspend nuclear tests after this summer's series in the Pacific, but the question is being closely studied.

4. The key problem in oil is not that of production but of marketing. This was taken as a warning to Mideast countries to think twice before seizing foreign-owned oil properties. Dulles said the Soviet Union cannot provide a market because it is an exporter of oil.

Dulles rejected a Soviet proposal to defer the inspection question to the summit. He said there was no reason to wait. He said he hoped Russia would change its mind and agree to start technical studies immediately, looking toward creation of an Arctic inspection zone.

Wheat Supports At $1.81

Washington (AP) — The Agriculture Department announced Thursday it will support grower prices for 1959-crop wheat at an average of not less than $1.81 a bushel, provided growers vote to continue marketing quotas another year.

This compares with a minimum of $1.78 announced for this year's crop and $2 for last year's production.

Next year's rate was announced ahead of a referendum to be held June 20 on the question of continuing quotas for the 1959 crop.

Construction Is 'Slower' Than In 1957

With one-third of the year gone, building activity has hit $2,403,485—but is running about $500,000 below a year ago.

Building permits issued during April totalled $1,903,373, This is down from $1,301,124 in April, 1957.

There were 228 permits issued during the past month. Included were 65 new residences totalling $786,827 and 5 new duplexes for $72,030. No major commercial building was recorded.

If the present trend continues, the 1958 construction picture will wind up at approximately $11.4 million. Previous totals were $11,919,260 in 1957 and $14,227,927 in 1956.

2 Coast Bandits Get $150,000 In Merchandise

Beverly Hills, Calif. (AP) —Two gunmen looted a fashionable jewelry store in daylight Thursday and escaped with an estimated $150,000 in merchandise minutes before police arrived.

The gunmen, one toting a sawed-off shotgun, entered the store two minutes before closing time and forced 8 customers, 3 employes and owner Marvin Hime to line up against a wall, police said.

Hime ducked out the back door. The bandit with the shotgun tried to shoot, but the weapon misfired, Hime told officers.

As Hime sprinted down an alley to sound the alarm, a third robber sitting in a getaway car dashed into the store and apparently warned the other gunmen, police said.

The 3 bandits smashed a show case, scooped up jewels, watches, and other baubles and escaped in their car.

70ish Degree Temperatures, Rain Forecast

A few widely scattered showers and thundershowers are due to splash Nebraska Friday, the Weather Bureau said, moving into the extreme eastern part of the state Friday night.

Mild temperatures are to continue, generally in the 70ts, the Bureau said.

Light rain fell at Imperial and Alliance Thursday evening. Earlier showers were reported at North Platte, Grand Island and Scottsbluff.

The mercury climbed back into the 70s Thursday to mark the first day of May. Omaha and Norfolk topped the state with 73.

Lincoln's precipitation for April totaled 2.60 inches, compared with a normal 2.29 inches. Total for the year is 8.54 inches, far above a normal count of 5.50 inches.

New Proposal

Los Angeles (INS) — The Air Line Pilots Association submitted a new proposal to strike-bound Western Air Lines.

A spokesman for the union said the pilots would continue to accept an earlier agreement to set aside temporarily an issue revolving about the third crewman on jet liners and proposed that other issues be submitted to arbitration.

Sec. Mitchell Wants Quick Decision On Tax Cut

NO SOLID GAINS YET SIGHTED

... By Cabinet Officer

Washington (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell Thursday called for a decision within 30 or 60 days on whether the times call for a tax cut.

He told a news conference, devoted to the question of how to overcome the recession, that he sees no solid improvement ahead.

At the same time, Mitchell said he agrees with President Eisenhower that the recession seems to be flattening out.

And another parade of witnesses gave a Senate-House economic subcommittee these views on what to do

New Tax Cut Pleas

1. Spokesmen for the AFL-CIO, the National Grange, the National Farmers Union and the Americans for Democratic Action all called for quick tax cuts.

2. The American Farm Bureau, largest and most conservative of farm organizations, reported it found no reason for major federal action.

3. The National Association of Manufacturers called for an effort to deal with the underlying causes of both inflation and recession.

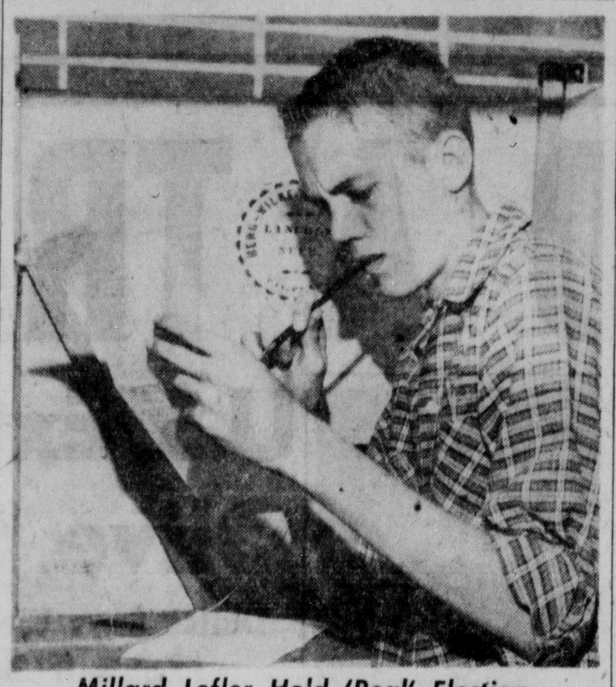

4. The Committee for Economic Development said that if the economic decline continues through May, it would wait no longer on calling for a big tax cut.

Opposes Shorter Week

Sec. Mitchell frowned on suggestions that Congress legislate on the questions of shortening the work week and setting up a sort of guaranteed annual wage and profit sharing for workers in industries that don't have stable employment. Mitchell said these were matters for collective bargaining.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) had raised the possibility of congressional studies in these fields, such as bringing about a 4-day week, saying:

"Eventually we've got to consider it, and I think we should consider it now."

Millard Lefler Hold 'Real' Election

Registered voter Tom Ashleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Ashleman of 4716 Hillside, makes a tough decision in balloting for his classmates who will tour city and school board offices next Tuesday. Tom, like other Millard Lefler 9th graders, is participating in the "true-to-life" primary and general election to choose the junior high's Government Day representatives. (Star Photo.)

Realism Brings High Interest In Millard Lefler Elections

"Everything is according to Hoyle" at Millard Lefler Junior High where 200 9th graders Friday will elect their 8 representatives to City Government Day tours.

Polls will be guarded by the requisite number of "election workers", ballots will be perfect replicas of a real election — except for the names — and each voter will have to prove he has duly registered.

Before the Friday vote, the 9th graders registered, the aspiring candidates filed, and a Monday primary cut the list to 16. Every step, including actual campaign speeches by the candidates, followed Election Commissioners' standards.

The result: one of the most orderly, serious elections in the school's history.

Hi-jinks were out and campaigning limited to short sincere speeches with promises to "be your eyes and ears" and "if elected I will strive to serve efficiently and accurately."

So far, the efforts at realism have paid off, according to civics teachers Mrs. Emily Childress and Ralph Farrar. Of the 200 9th grade civics students, about 80% registered and 75% of the qualified voters turned out for the primary.

Although the voting will be non-political when the polls open at 8 a.m., the rivalry will be there. Before school, at lunch and after school, the teenage voters will cast their ballots democratically in real election booths borrowed from the Election Commissioners office.

Two tired civics teachers will finish counting the ballots Friday evening in an election turnout which is bound to put the May 13 primary in Lincoln to shame.

Liepnieks Leads Chess Tourney

Alex Liepnieks leads Lincoln chess players at the end of 5 rounds of the city chess tournament, with 4 wins, one draw and no losses.

Others placing in the championship group include Anton Sildmets and John Salna with 3 wins each.

Second group leaders are Arthur Tramdachs and Paul Troester. Both divisions meet at the YMCA on Tuesday and Friday nights.

Former state chess champion Jack Spence will address the annual chess banquet at the Lincoln Hotel May 17.

The Farm outlook is important. Complete coverage of crop forecasts and price supports appear in this Newspaper as changes take place.

Negro Mom, 85, Named Michigan 'Mother Of Year'

Detroit (AP) — An 85-year-old Negro mother of 12 children Thursday was crowned Michigan's 1958 "Mother Of The Year."

Mrs. Mattie Baker McFall, whose parents were slaves, was presented the award by Governor and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

This weekend Mrs. McFall will be in New York where judges will select the "American Mother Of The Year." If she wins, she will be received at the White House by Mrs. Eisenhower and then taken to Brussels to represent this country at the world's fair.

The contest is sponsored by the American Mothers Committee, Inc., of New York. The Michigan part of the contest was sponsored by the Northland Center Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. McFall, who was chosen from 17 other Michigan mothers, was married at 14. She and her husband, Benjamin, spent most of their lives farming in Georgia. Her husband died in 1921. Mrs. McFall came to Detroit in 1956 because many of her children had settled here.

Demands On Nursing Skills 'On Increase'

Changes that have occurred in medicine in general have influenced the nursing profession in particular, according to Dr. Guy M. Matson of Lincoln.

Speaking at the 8th annual convention of Division 3 of the Licensed Practical Nurses of Nebraska Thursday night, Dr. Matson said, "Little more than a quarter of a century ago, a nurse could easily fill most occupations of medical nature. This is not so today.

"As medicine has advanced, so have demands on nursing skill and technique.

"It is to be expected that the trend toward combining the service of both practical and registered nurses in private offices, industry and public health will continue. To this end, your increased numbers will maintain your position of one of the largest employed professional groups in the U.S."

The group made plans to participate in the upcoming state convention to be held at Hastings. Approximately 400 practical nurses belong to the state organization.

New officers elected at the evening business session were Mrs. Mary Cooley of Lincoln, secretary; Mrs. Blanche Bjorling of Lincoln, treasurer and Mrs. Zilla Weis of Lincoln, director. Other officers will retain their posts until next year.

Nehru Promises Return To Office After A Vacation

New Delhi (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru Thursday turned aside a Congress party request that he stay at India's helm, but promised to return after a vacation.

Nehru caused consternation in his party when he announced Tuesday he wants to leave the Prime Ministry and his other offices and concentrate on the major problems facing India and the world.

Party leaders unanimously adopted a resolution Thursday asking him to stay in the government. But the 68-year-old Prime Minister chided them and emphasized that he had not been merely seeking an expression of confidence.

Nehru said he increasingly has felt that he is not in tune with the country or with the party.

"I want to be in tune," he added.

Woman Offers Life So Horse May Be Spared

Los Angeles (INS) — An unidentified woman offered to sacrifice her own life to save a 17-year-old horse which has been condemned to death in the will of its late mistress.

The offer was revealed by filmland attorney Jerry Giesler, one of five volunteer barristers who are attempting to save the Morgan stallion, Tom Boy, from the fate decreed for it in the will of Mrs. Eleanor Lucan.

Giesler refused to identify the woman, but he said she wrote him that she was "quite sincere" about her offer, even though she realized it would "make me out as off my rocker."

The letter said:

"Being rather fond of dogs and horses, I think it a shame that a beautiful, healthy animal should be destroyed because of the whim of one . . . person.

"Tom Boy has a home for life, with no expense to the city all through the unselfishness of those wonderful folks who have taken care of him for years. Pretend he has been put away, but let him live.

"If his life must be taken, please, sir, I offer mine in his stead."

Senate OKs Pay For Widows Of Confederate Vets

Washington (AP) — The Senate Thursday voted for federal pensions for widows of Confederate veterans.

Federal pensions never have been paid to veterans of the Confederate Army or their widows although some of the old Confederate states pension them.

The Confederate widows provision was an amendment to a bill boosting the pensions now paid widows of U.S. veterans of the Mexican, Civil, Indian and Spanish-American Wars, the Boxer Rebellion and the Philippine Insurrection.

All widows covered by the bill would get $75 a month if they were married to the veteran while he was in service, $65 otherwise. Rates have ranged from $52.50 a month to $67.73.

The Confederate widows provision was sponsored by Sen. Long (D-La). He said there are no figures on how many such widows are living, but committee aides said a rough estimate might be about 1,000. There are 4,000 widows of Union soldiers drawing pensions.

FRONDIZI BECOMES PRESIDENT

... Of Argentina

Buenos Aires, Argentina (AP) —Arturo Frondizi took the oath as Argentina's president Thursday, warned the armed forces to keep out of politics, and pledged to govern by law. For 12 years this nation had been under dictatorship or military rule.

Vice President Nixon flew down as President Eisenhower's envoy at the swearing-in ceremony, but missed it. His car was held up in traffic, he was late and a small crowd hooted as he hurried into the Congressional Hall in time to hear the tall, 49-year-old lawyer launch an attack on U.S. trade policy in his inaugural address.

Without mentioning the United States by name, Frondizi called on Latin American nations to unite and "fight against discriminations against our countries and combat dumping." That was a reference to U.S. sales of farm surpluses abroad, a sore point in agricultural Argentina.

The left-of-center radical party leader invited foreign capital to help develop petroleum resources, but drew the loudest applause from the joint session of Congress when he declared Argentina would call the shots in the oil industry. He said he himself would take personal charge of Argentina's oil monopoly.

Gives Up Office

Seattle (AP) — Dave Beck, retired Teamsters Union president, gave up a suite of swank, oak-paneled offices built especially for him last year in the union's office building here.

His successor, James R. Hoffa, recently ordered that Beck relinquish all union property except the luxurious Seattle home the union bought for $163,000. Whether Beck can continue living there rent-free will be decided next month by the Teamster Executive Board.

'Dirty Trick'

Minneapolis (AP) — Harold Wold of suburban St. Louis Park was out of nickels when he parked his car on a downtown street.

While he fetched some, the painters made his parking place a truck zone.

A policeman tagged him, not for failure to plug the meter, but for parking in a truck zone.

"It was a dirty trick," said Judge Tom Bergin in Traffic Court. "Case dismissed."

Home Guard Board Names New Officers

The Lincoln Home Guard Foundation elected Mrs. Wesley Crayton vice president of the board of trustees.

Other officers elected were Kenneth Wilcox, executive secretary, and Robert Lentz, treasurer.

Tentative plans were made at the meeting to open a youth center.

Benson Warns That Bill To Aid Dairy Farmers Would Skyrocket Prices

. . . Blasts 'Self-Help' Measures

Washington (INS) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson warned that a proposed bill to aid dairy farmers would send prices paid by housewives skyrocketing.

Benson told the House Agriculture Committee that the "dairy self help" measures being considered by Congress would boost consumer prices an estimated 11 cents on a pound of butter, 9 cents on a pound of cheese and 2 cents on each quart of milk.

In general, the so-called "self help" bills would authorize dairymen to set up associations with power to set up support levels, create marketing allotments and substantially control distribution in various areas. The costs of the program would be borne by assessments against the farmers.

Benson contended the program was mislabelled and would not be really self-help at all inasmuch as the costs would be passed onto the consumer. He asserted the best solution to the dairy problem lies not in price supports and marketing restrictions but rather in stimulation consumption of milk products by the American people.

Responsibility

The cabinet member told the House group that the proposed program was to be seriously questioned because of "delegation of authority and responsibility, the lack of limits of price support levels and administrative feasibility."

He noted that except for the first year the bills fail to specify any maximum or minimum support levels. He said Congress should determine the support standards.

Benson objected also to the fact the plans would divide responsibility for their operation between the Agriculture Department and independent boards representing farm groups.

He also cautioned that the self-financing aspects of the program could be illusory. Benson pointed out that if the farmers, after borrowing money from the government to set up the system, voted to end the program, the federal Treasury would be saddled with the debt.

She Gulped

Little Rock, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Patsy Ellis, secretary to Gov. Orval Faubus, gulped when she looked inside a package delivered to the governor's office. It contained a .22 caliber pistol with a message inside saying: "Give this to the governor."

The explanation came shortly. Faubus had left the pistol in eastern Arkansas after a turkey hunt. A friend was returning it to him.

Two Hot Battles

Algiers (AP) — The French Army claimed to have killed or captured more than 300 Nationalist rebels in 2 hot battles and seized a large store of ammunition.

Rebel bands that tried to cross into Algeria from Tunisia after cutting a French electrified wire fence set off one battle near Souk-Ahras in eastern Algeria. The battle continued through a second day with 216 rebels killed and 10 captured, French headquarters said.

He'll Try New Phase

Durban (AP) — Over the years artist F. Seymour Haydem has painted 4 ships—the British warships Hood and Repulse, the South African frigate Tiviott and the Cunard liner Caronia. Now he's giving up that phase of his art. For every ship he has ever painted has met with some kind of mishap. Haydem came to the decision after the Caronia's bow was damaged in hitting a breakwater at Yokohama April 14. The Tiviott had hit a rock off Colombo. Both the Hood and Repulse were sunk in World War II.

3 Grads Of 1908 Honored

Dinner Opens Union College Homecoming

Union College launched its annual Alumni Homecoming activities Thursday with a banquet honoring 50- and 25-year classes. About 250 alumni and students attended.

The 3-day celebration lasts through Saturday.

R. A. Nesmith, educational secretary of the Southwestern Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, will address the honors convocation in the college auditorium Friday. Some 130 students will be recognized for scholastic achievements.

The traditional hanging of the golden cords in the college auditorium will highlight the 8:00 p.m. program Friday. Golden cords will be hung to honor 10 graduates who have entered foreign mission service in 1957.

J. J. Aitken, secretary of the missionary volunteer department of the Southern European Division of Seventh-day Adventists, will be the guest speaker for the Saturday morning church services.

French Dancer Improved After Wrist Slashing

Paris (AP) — Folies Bergeres star Yvonne Menard, who was found semi-conscious in her apartment with one wrist slashed, showed some improvement Thursday after blood transfusions.

Doctors said she was still in serious condition.

Friends said the 28-year-old singer and dancer had been despondent because of the Paris critics' sharp words about her latest revue.

Originally one of the folies nudes, Miss Menard moved into stardom when she was chosen to succeed Josephine Baker in a singing and dancing role. Most of the time she still performs nude or semi-nude.

You'll Agree Snow Crop Orange Juice Is "Home-Squeezed" Style

Once you try Snow Crop orange juice, you'll know why it's called the "home-squeezed" style juice. Snow Crop is distinctively different in appearance from other frozen juices—it's the one juice that looks like the kind you squeeze at home. That's because Snow Crop is specially processed to retain the real fruit particles that other frozen juices strain out. Snow Crop tastes like the juice you squeeze at home, too—always deliciously full-bodied, never thin or watery. It's the pure juice of choice, tree-ripened oranges—loaded with Vitamin C and other important food benefits ...ideal for babies as well as grown-ups! Drink Snow Crop "home-squeezed" style orange juice every day. It's good for you—good for your whole family!

Bonus Money Challenge

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

People frequently use words a little carelessly and such is the case with the so-called federal bonus money for highway improvement work during the next year. It is true that Nebraska has had allocated to it $6.6 million more in federal funds for road work than was previously the case.

This is the result of the recently passed federal legislation which gave a substantial shot in the arm to the nation's road-building program. An extra billion dollars will be pumped into the road program between Dec. 1, 1958 and Dec. 1, 1959 as a result of this legislation. But to say it is a bonus is making the picture look a little too rosy. A bonus is something that is generally handed to you on more or less of a silver platter with no strings attached.

Term, "Bonus," Misleading

This is not the case with the extra road-building money. As a matter of fact, it is so far from the case that State Engineer L. N. Ress seems to believe that all the bonus will not be used in Nebraska. He has expressed the belief that some $4 million in bonus work can be let in June but has spoken with reservation about the time beyond June.

The program does present a challenge to the state and to cities which hope to take part in the undertaking and reap some of its harvest. The greatest difficulty lies in the matter of time. All work must be let by Dec. 1 of this year and completed by Dec. 1 of 1959.

There are many physical difficulties involved in working this fast, along with some administrative problems. For cities to use any of this bonus money means that they will have to work at top speed to get their plans and specifications finished and contracts let.

For most cities, this is a big job. Their engineering departments are not geared to that kind of operation. They are generally manned to handle things according to what has been their accepted time schedule. The bonus money program would require that these departments accelerate their schedules to a considerable degree.

The physical problems in doing urban highway work with the bonus money are many. As Ress has noted, it takes a great deal more time to do paving within a city than it does out in the country. City work calls for extensive sewer work in connection with paving, generally calls for acquisition of more right-of-way and must be done with recognition of traffic problems.

Large areas of a city cannot be blocked off without regard to traffic movement such as can be done in the country. As an example, one might consider the time it is taking for extension of Capitol Parkway from 27th and D to 32nd and A. It seems as though the contractor will never finish his work at 27th and D.

There is also the money problem in the stepped-up road program. The bonus money doesn't mean it's free. It has to be matched by the state or cities with the government throwing in two-thirds of the cost of any program and the state and cities providing the remainder. For both the state and cities, it means coughing up money which they had not anticipated a need for a few months ago. Lincoln, for example, would need $83,666 to match federal funds in carrying out improvements to K and L as a one-way feeder into and out of Capitol Parkway just from 19th to 21st.

Dollars Must Be Matched

This does not mean the program will fail in Nebraska or serve no useful purpose here. It does mean, however, that the state and cities have a big job ahead of them and will have to work efficiently if they are to benefit from this program.

Smell Politics In Justice Department

WASHINGTON — The situation inside the Justice Department regarding political favoritism in law enforcement has caused some worried huddles by Justice Department officials, plus some talk on Capitol Hill of a congressional investigation.

Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee and Congressman Jack Brooks of Texas have already addressed inquiries to the new attorney general, William P. Rogers, about his failure to prosecute Republicans.

Mr. Rogers and Vice President Nixon are reported to have held several earlier conversations on one particular case, that of Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, the Harlem Democrat who hurriedly switched to Eisenhower in 1956, after he found himself under income tax investigation. The grand jury probing Powell was stymied 14 months by the Justice Department despite the fact that the U.S. assistant attorney, Thomas Bolan, tried to push the case. Bolan finally resigned.

The Powell grand jury has been reconvened in New York after moves made by some of its members to rehire Mr. Bolan and take the case into its own hands.

The threatened runaway aspect of the Powell grand jury could not have come at a more embarrassing time for the Justice Department. It coincides not only with the demands of Senator Gore and Representative Brooks for prosecution of Republicans, but also with the last desperate appeal to the Supreme Court by Lamar Caudle and Matt Connelly of the Truman administration for a rehearing of their case.

The Justice Department called three different grand juries, in Omaha, Kansas City and St. Louis, in an effort to get something on officials close to President Truman. It even refused Caudle and Connelly a new trial after the trial judge, Ruby Hulen committed suicide before sentence was passed.

☆ ☆ ☆

Members of the Senate Judiciary committee have compiled a list of cases where the Justice Department, under Eisenhower, appeared to evade, and in some cases deliberately dismissed, prosecution of Republicans. This may become the basis of an important investigation of whether the Justice Department has become the political arm of the administration. Here are some of the cases:

Galveston grain scandal—After the Justice Department indicted E. H. Thornton and officials of the Bunge Corporation, an Argentine firm, for stealing U.S. government grain and replacing it with hog feed on the Galveston docks, Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas flew to Washington, lunched with Ike, and thereafter the case against Thornton was dropped. Thornton was the father of Shivers' campaign manager and college classmate. Subordinate officials of the Justice Department were indignant over orders to drop the case, but complied.

Superior Oil Company — After lobbyists for the Superior Oil Company, Elmer Patman and John Neff, tried to bribe Senator Case of South Dakota with $2,500 to vote for the natural gas bill, both were given suspended sentences by Judge Joseph McGarraghy. But the man who put up the money, Howard Keck, head of Superior Oil, was never prosecuted. He had donated twice this amount, $5,000, to the Eisenhower dinner during the natural gas fight.

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

Ask A Woman Her Daylight Saving Age

By MONA B. PARKER

A babe in arms found itself the center of attention in downtown Fremont recently, and the child's father no doubt found himself the unwilling recipient of a variety of repair bills. He was holding the baby as he sat in his parked car, when the little one pushed the shift lever into gear. The car jumped the curb, struck a store front damaging both store and car, and when the vehicle was backed off the curbing, it struck an adjoining parked car, damaging the fender.

☆ ☆ ☆

Hyde Sweet of the Nebraska City News-Press has been told that women have a secret appreciation of a wolf whistle directed their way, especially when they reach the Middle Age Spread category. He's not offering an opinion one way or another, since he hasn't experimented — nor, wisely, does he intend to. . .

"In the first place, I am somewhat cowardly, and secondly, I cannot whistle loud enough to attract even the attention of a taxicab driver."

☆ ☆ ☆

Irma Leggett, Ord Quizzer on the distaff side, speaks in favor of the sack dress that the masculine element is so busily maligning these fashionable days. She lists nine points on the credit side of the sack, but apparently she's only trying to work up her nerve. She has one herself, she admits, has had it for several months, puts it off sometimes but takes it off again and wears something else. She's not "used to it" yet, she argues. . .

☆ ☆ ☆

Words are weak when it comes to describing them, W. H. Plourd snickers in the Nance County Journal. "The way they look on some of the gals is much funnier than anything that can be said about them."

☆ ☆ ☆

The Fairbury Journal is looking ahead. Later in the season when it is time for a clearance of spring dresses, it wonders if some enterprising merchant will advertise a "sack race."

☆ ☆ ☆

Life has just begun for George Clarke of the Harrison Sun if the old adage that the starting point is 40 is true. Looking back, he notes some spots that were rough enough that he'd skip them again if he could. Looking ahead, he feels that peace and contentment on a world-wide scale can be achieved if we want it enough and have the faith and courage to work for it. . .

"Wonder what I'll say 40 years from now?"

☆ ☆ ☆

A Kearney woman went all-out in the contributions she planned for her church group's bake sale. She took five different items to the sale, offered to work, and helped for an hour. She was especially pleased at the rapidity with which her own goods sold. Only one thing bothered her. She didn't see any of her friends. In fact, she didn't recognize anyone at the sale.

Just as she was ready to go home, she found that she had attended a 4-H club bake sale.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Trenton Register advised its clock-watching friends to be careful how they set their timepieces. The legislature had passed a law against the use of daylight saving time, but Ogallala was considering doing it, anyway. . .

"Wonder what the law thinks about some ladies we know, who for their own purposes have turned back the clock a few years, at least when they tell their age."

Lincoln Schools Progressing

It was encouraging to note the progress being made by the Lincoln school system in the reorganization and strengthening of its curriculum. In three areas covered by a recent survey of the system, the Lincoln School District had already made improvement or had at least had the subject up for discussion. Another program of the Lincoln schools, its offering of college credit courses on the secondary level, drew the praise of the visiting survey team.

The survey team recommended that two years of science be required at the junior high level. Lincoln School Board members had already approved a full three-year science program for all six junior highs, to be started next fall.

This beefing up of the curriculum, so to speak, has been advocated in many quarters as one of the nation's greatest educational needs. The action of the Lincoln Board of Education is a commendable step toward stemming the tide toward mediocrity in school subject offerings. It's a worthwhile re-emphasis of the need for concentration on fundamental subject matter courses.

The Lincoln District has recognized the need for placement of teachers within their major subject area of training. While there are still some teachers in fields in which they did not major, the number is comparatively small, and even a smaller percentage yet have had what might be considered a definite lack of sufficient training in the course they are teaching. But again, the importance of teacher knowledge of the subject matter has been recognized in the Lincoln public schools and efforts to improve the situation are being made.

Also, the Lincoln Board of Education has already acted to enlarge the faculty for the hard-of-hearing classes at Prescott School, as recommended by the survey team. The Lincoln schools were praised for their offering of college level courses in the high schools and the Board of Education is considering expansion of this worthy program. We make no claim that this spells perfection in the Lincoln system but it does show an awareness here that is lacking in many areas—a situation in which we can take pride.

Midstate Project Feasible

The directors of the Midstate reclamation project put the stamp of approval on an engineering report, six months in preparation, which found Nebraska's newest program feasible for extended management of Platter river water.

This means the hopeful district will have added and necessary helpful evidence in its effort to win congressional approval for the project this season.

The district would continue the development of the river downstream from the already proven upstream region whose irrigation comes from the impounded water of Lake McConnaughy at Ogallala. It would bring irrigation to some 140,000 acres in Hall, Merrick and Buffalo counties.

The estimated cost of installations for the project would run to an estimated $74,038,500. It contemplates financing from a $45,818,800 federal loan plus a $28,222,700 grant for non-reimbursable features. Sale of electric power and water is expected to make the project debt free in 60 years.

The value of such reclamation cannot be over emphasized in Nebraska. In the national competition in farm production Nebraska's greatest hope for a place in the sun is through technology and water management. If it must sink to submarginal levels in the few areas where irrigation is impractical it must emerge at every place where such a facility can be employed.

Curtis Is Disillusioned

Nebraska's Senator Carl Curtis is indignant with the Democratic party. To him it is not a party at all. He described it as "in fact a party of labor union bosses."

Nebraska is glad to hear from its senior senator and his report from the labor front reminds constituents here that the Nebraska delegation has a great taste for alien corn. Representatives can be found anywhere from the Idaho Power Company's struggles in Hells Canyon to the capital of America's billboard industry.

We are not so interested in what Senator Curtis currently thinks of the Democratic party, because in recent years, at least, he has not been out of that faith. We are more interested in his pitching his Republican tepee nearer to the heart of Nebraska's interests. This is an agricultural state and not a labor state and it has a supply of vexing rural problems that will hardly be solved by noisy jousting with Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers. This state does not have many congressional representatives and cannot afford the luxury of a senator or congressman-at-large.

A one-party state such as Nebraska has been and possibly still is is not profited by denunciations of non-resident party. But it would be well served if its representatives stuck around a little closer and tended the store.

Not Sorry

Nebraska never gained anything good by emphasizing its bad weather, and it is a fine thing now that it is losing reputation as the national center of the meteorological disaster. Texas has taken the prize with three tornadoes working one area simultaneously. New England currently had us badly beaten with high tides and downpours, and California is the new flood champion. Meantime, commonplace Nebraska is trudging along with weather anyone can live with.

Poor Showing

Oklahomans in the vicinity of Okeene held their ninteenth annual rattlesnake roundup. The 940 registered snake hunters bagged 4,000 rattlers and only one man was bitten. We presume by Oklahoma standards the 1958 drive lacked the stimulating fun of the past events—only one fellow bitten. Those Oklahoma snakes aren't what they used to be.

Ike Says Not Grooming Dick

WASHINGTON — Anything President Eisenhower says about Vice President Richard M. Nixon is news, even if the President only reaffirms an existing condition, which is all that he did at his press conference this week.

The President said that he had no responsibility to groom a successor, that this was up to his party which "has a log of darned good men." This is completely in line with Eisenhower's political attitudes from the moment of his first nomination in 1952.

The President handles his own political interests with great skill, even finesse. He has shown no disposition to handle the political interests of others or of his own party beyond the normal ceremonial.

Again this week he stressed that he was giving his vice president access to large areas of inside government information because it was his duty to do so. Eisenhower has spoken frankly of his special obligation in this matter due to his health.

But again the President left wide open the question of actually training Nixon to be an executive. The vice president has had legislative experience but he has never spent an hour in an executive job.

Nixon is sensitive to this vacuum in his record. He very much wanted an executive post within the administration, preferably one dealing with foreign affairs, another field where he has great information but no responsibility for making decisions. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has managed to veto that. The President has not only accepted the Dulles view that it would be an unconstitutional delegation of power but has stated it publicly.

President Roosevelt made such a delegation of power to Vice President Henry A. Wallace in World War II by naming Wallace chairman of the Board of Economic Warfare. But Dulles is described as remembering all too clearly the troubles his uncle, Secretary of State Robert Lansing, had in the Wilson administration when Wilson inserted Colonel House into the channel between the White House and the State Department.

The President strongly denied that he would resign the presidency or cease to perform its duties so long as he was physically able. He appeared to feel that he was being charged with plotting with Nixon to step down so that Nixon might enjoy the advantages of incumbency in 1960.

Fund For Pets

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Not so many days ago, my St. Bernard dog, "Duke," was viciously beaten with beer bottles and a club. At this moment, he lies in the animal hospital, and while an operation was necessary to help save his life, he still lies there, with no change in his condition.

I love all pets, and this cowardly beating of a dog, a St. Bernard at that, known throughout history as the most peaceful and docile of all dogs, makes me ill. I have received many kind telephone calls and letters from pet lovers both sympathizing and offering me encouragement in the final recovery of my beloved pet. I want to take this opportunity of thanking all these kind people for their good wishes.

I kept my dog chained within my premises and fenced in, and paid the license fee and taxes. I kept all the rules and abided by all the laws. People are protected against dogs by laws. If dog bites man, the dog and its owner must suffer the consequences. Now, if man bites dog, which in effect has taken place, how does such a culprit get punished when he did his work unnoticed and is now too cowardly to come forward and admit his act? Funds are taken for humans who need help, but where is the "dog fund" for helpless beaten dogs that need care to save their lives? The costs are mounting, in my instance, to pay to save or try to save the life of my dog.

I hope as time goes on, someone will start a community fund for helpless pets so that similar cases may receive financial help.

City Taxes

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Any informed and thinking person can appreciate and understand the rising tide of protest against the rapidly growing tax burden on property in Lincoln. This increase in recent years has been more rapid and heavy than ever before, and is approaching the limit of popular endurance. Nevertheless this is no sufficient reason for some misguided citizens trying to make the city government the scapegoat for something for which it is not responsible. The way in which the city has held down on expenditures and the resulting very small part of the recent big jump in the property tax chargeable against the city is brought out clearly by the tabulation below.

Property Tax Payments On $1,000

Taxing Units	Assessed Valuation 1957 Payments	Increase 1953-1957	Increase 1947-1957
State	$10.53	$3.50	$3.43
County	5.60	1.60	2.10
Sanitary Dist.	1.00	—1.00	—1.00
School Dist.	41.73	14.75	19.14
City	14.80	2.00	3.65
Total	$73.66	$20.85	$27.32

Note carefully (1) that this year's property tax on each $1,000 assessed valuation is $27.32 greater than 10 years ago; (2) that $20.85 of this large increase has taken place in just the last four years at an average rate of over $5 a year; (3) finally, and most important for the main purpose of this letter, note that the city is chargeable with only $2, or less than one-tenth of the rapid and heavy four-year increase, while the state and school district are responsible for $18.25, or six-sevenths of it.

Why, then, the current denunciation and attack on the city government that (even with the wheel tax included) is responsible for such a small part of the mounting increase in the total tax load?

Dreaming, Scheming

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It looks as if we are not to the bottom of the barrel yet. The Council has purchased soft-cushioned chairs with reclining backs for relaxing and smoking and thinking of other ideas on how to get more money from the taxpayers without putting it to a vote.

I still hope that we can always vote as Americans. It isn't the $5 a year wheel tax; it is the method used to obtain it.

The antique chairs aren't the only antiques in City Hall. We need younger men from the economic field and engineers who know how to adjust city problems.

The proposed city and county building hasn't received the approval of the people. Now they are trying to put that over like the wheel tax. Wake up, voters.

Our Own Show

Omaha, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The papers are predicting a light vote in the primaries. Indeed! Do they actually think they have us voters "fixed" and packaged —that they know what we will do before we have decided ourselves? We voters should immediately get to our constitutional duties. The sample ballots are available and it behooves us to begin sweating over the man-sized task of picking "big" men. I vouch for it that it's tough going.

On the whole, the big men are scarce. Isn't there a really big man in the entire bailiwick of Nebraska to run for governor or United States senator? Let's find him and make him run. The deadline for filing (by petition of 1,000 patriots) is October 6.

Let us show the wise alecks that we voters are running our own show this time, and procure nominees and candidates who are more imbued with principles of service.

Wheel Tax Collection

Lincoln, Neb.

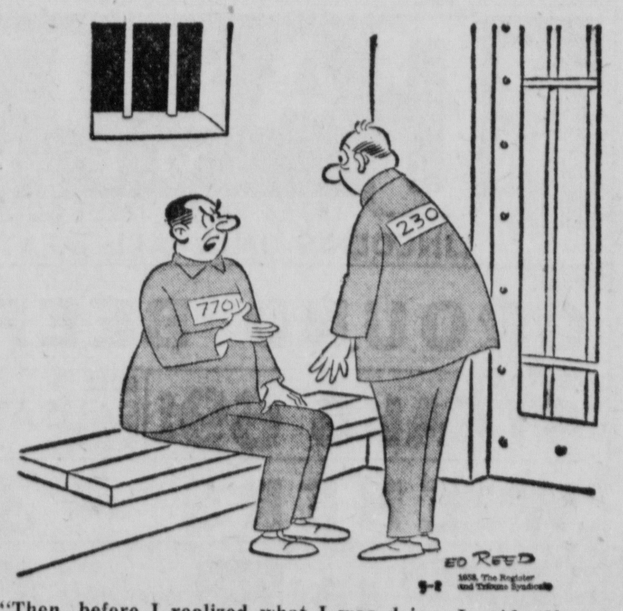

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In large type across the front of the wheel tax statement are the words, "For Street Improvements Only." Very good, if such words were backed by penalties for any violations thereof. However, the ordinance provides no penalties whatsoever for any misappropriation of such funds, so these words are meaningless, as there are no penalties provided to enforce compliance.

However, there are many specific penalties provided in the event you are unable to pay the wheel tax. If you do not have the money to pay, you must pay 22 per cent interest per year on any unpaid balance. What a money-loving provision! Also, you will be subject to a misdemeanor complaint to collect same, and you may be sued and your wages garnisheed.

This ordinance is merely a money-grabbing operation, with no built-in penalties to guarantee that the money will be used for street repairing.

Booklet Explains Interstate Highway Features

By Betty Person

A booklet published by the State Highway Department "in an effort to answer many of the questions Nebraskans have about the interstate highway," was released Thursday by State Engineer L. N. Ress.

The booklet explains the most important features of the interstate system, the design standards, access control, interchanges, the 5 interstate routes in Nebraska, and other features.

Outlining the routes through Nebraska, the booklet designates them as:

Route 1: The main east-west route, entering Nebraska from the west, following generally U.S. 30 to Grand Island, U.S. 34 to Lincoln, and U.S. 6 to Omaha. This is designated as Nebraska Interstate 80.

Route 2: Joining the Denver spur in the vicinity of Big Springs, Neb.

Route 3: Downtown Omaha spur, extending north from interstate route 1 near 32nd and Grover, and east from 26th — Chicago, crossing the Missouri River north of the present Aksarben Bridge.

Route 4: Downtown Lincoln spur, extending southerly from interstate route 1 to S St.

Route 5: Circumferential route west and north of Omaha, proceeding from route 1 near 108th northerly, and eastward from ½ mile northwest of Irvington, to cross the Missouri River in the vicinity of the Mormon Bridge.

Most Traffic

The routes selected, Ress said, were those which engineering studies prove the most traffic will follow.

In Nebraska all of the interstate highway will be 4 or more lanes, with sufficient right-of-way to build additional lanes as necessary.

Opposing traffic lanes will be divided by the wide median to reduce the possibility of head-on collisions and sideswiping of oncoming vehicles, and will reduce the glare from headlights of vehicles in opposing traffic lanes.

Each traffic lane will be at least 12 feet wide, parking shoulders will be paved and at least 10 feet wide, other shoulders will be paved at least 4 feet wide, and medians are to be at least 40 feet wide in rural areas.

In cities the medians will be determined by the availability of right-of-way and other factors, but in few cases will they be less than 16 feet, the booklet states.

Interstate standards also call for strict control of access which permits vehicles entering or leaving the highways to do so on facilities designed for both safe and easy merging with and emerging from through-traffic systems.

Music Workshop Opens Wesleyan Summer Series

Music and mathematics for elementary grades, world affairs and a writers workshop will be the subject of 4 summer workshops at Wesleyan University starting June 9, according to Dr. Sam Dahl, dean of the college.

Dr. R. J. Staples, supervisor of elementary grade music for the province of Saskatchewan, Canada, and author of the Follett Music Series, will conduct a one-week workshop, June 9-13, in Music for Elementary Grades. He will stress the use of melody and rhythm instruments.

"America's Stake in the Orient" will be theme for the world affairs workshop to be held June 16-20. Dr. Haridas T. Muzumdar, professor of sociology and social work at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, will be in charge.

Friend Of Gandhi

An intimate friend of the late Mahatma Gandhi, Professor Muzumdar is the author of one of the earliest biographies of the Indian leader. He recently returned from a world tour which was undertaken as a "Pilgrimage of good will."

A workshop on "Mathematics for Elementary Grades" will be conducted by Dr. Francis J. Mueller, teacher of arithmetic education at Towson State Teachers College, Baltimore, Md. The workshop will be held June 23-27.

Plans have also been completed for a writers' workshop to be held June 27-28. Hugh Curtis, editor of Better Homes and Gardens magazine will head the 2-day session.

College credit may be earned in all of the sessions except the Writers' Workshop.

A Personal Message From Geo. W. Wiederspan

As most of you know I was one of the originators of Ford Van Lines with my father and brother. The business being started in Lincoln in June 1915 under the name of Ford Delivery Company. Because of the untiring efforts of those who were interested in the firm and because we believed in the future, we succeeded in making Ford Van Lines one of the most prominent independently owned firms in the U.S.A., having operating authority to all 48 states. I am pleased to say that I am proud of what we accomplished along these lines as most of the planning and securing of this inter-state authority was mostly under my direction. In March of 1941 I moved to Denver and opened up a branch office at 534 South Broadway, this office has been growing from year to year. For quite some time I have been planning on retiring as I felt that my work with Ford Van Lines has been accomplished and as I had no son to carry on, I made a proposal to my two brothers and father for the purchase of my stock in Ford Van Lines. I would like to announce that effective May 1, 1958 I am resigning as Vice President of Ford Van Lines and on the same date the sale of my stock to the corporation will be concluded. One of the considerations in the sale of my stock was the transferring to me all of the South Side Moving and Storage Company, Denver, Colo., held by my father and brothers. This will give me complete ownership of South Side Moving and Storage, which firm I will be operating effective May 1st. To all of us there comes a time when one has aspirations or goals and I felt that by selling my stock to the corporation and going into business for myself I could reach those goals quicker and with more certainty than before. After 43 years of faithful service on my part one cannot help but have a fondness for the business that he helped create and plan its future. I wish my family the best of luck in the future. There will always be a warm spot in my heart for Ford Van Lines, Inc.

NU, State Medics Plan Film

Dr. Koebbe Named New President-Elect

By Don Walton

The Nebraska State Medical Assn., Thursday signed a contract with the University of Nebraska for the production of a film on traffic accidents to be financed ($3,000) by the Association and distributed for public use.

The University will produce the film. It will be completed and ready for distribution this fall, Dr. Fay Smith of Imperial, Association president who signed the pact, said.

Dr. E. E. Koebbe of Columbus, Creighton University professor, was named president-elect at a harmonious House of Delegates meeting.

Dr. Marvin A. Johnson of Plainview was elected vice president.

Lectures

The physicians ended their 3-day convention here Thursday afternoon, with the final series in a day-long session of lectures.

Total attendance for the 90th annual meet totaled 621, a figure slightly above the pre-convention estimate.

In other business, delegates:

—chose Omaha as the 1959 convention site.

—offered co-operation in a voluntary program to reduce occupational hazards.

Boards Named

Elected at final-day sessions:

Board of Councilors: Dr. R. C. Reeder of Fremont, 5th District; Dr. B. N. Greenberg of York, 6th District; Dr. H. V. Nuss of Sutton, 7th District; Dr. Wilbur Johnson of Valentine, 8th District.

Delegate to American Medical Assn., convention at San Francisco in June: Dr. J. D. McCarthy of Omaha; Dr. Harold S. Morgan of Lincoln, alternate.

Delegate to the North Central Medical Conference at Minneapolis in the late fall: Dr. A. J. Offerman of Omaha.

Board of Directors, Nebraska Medical Service: Dr. George Covey of Lincoln; Dr. J. J. Keegan of Omaha; Dr. A. J. Offerman of Omaha; Dr. Donald Steenberg of Aurora.

Open Verdict In Mysterious Death Of Student Nurse

St. Louis (AP) — An open verdict was returned Thursday in the death of a student nurse at Barnes Hospital who became ill after receiving a permanent wave in a beauty shop at Houston, Mo.

A coroner's jury found the death of Elsie Marie Ratterree, 18, was caused by massive internal hemorrhage resulting from acute bone marrow breakdown. The breakdown was due to "suspected toxic agent," the verdict said, adding that "exact time, place and type could not be determined."

Dr. James Nichels of the Barnes Hospital staff reported to police that death was caused "by a toxic blood condition apparently due to a hair preparation." A sample of the hair dressing used on the nurse was tested.

Three physicians at Jewish Hospital here reported in a medical journal that several women were suffering from a lung condition which may have been partly caused by hair sprays.

'Lucky Fellow'

Santa Monica, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Gregory Peck gave birth to a daughter, bringing this comment from her actor husband:

"I'm a very lucky fellow. It's my first daughter in 5 tries."

The infant weighed 6 pounds 8 ounces and was named Cecilia.

Peck has 3 sons by his first marriage to Greta Peck and one by his present wife, Veronique.

Million Soviets March With Peace Banners

. . . Tamest May Day Display In Years

Moscow (AP)—A million Russians bearing peace banners marched through Red Square Thursday behind Moscow's smallest and least bellicose May Day military display in

Unlike the lengthy demonstrations of weapons shown in the past, the military phase of the parade lasted only 15 minutes and apparently included no new arms. Nor there the usual Air Force fly-past.

The big guns and rockets of nuclear capability unveiled in last year's parade were missing. The military sampling consisted of paratroopers, antiaircraft guns, conventional rocket launchers on trucks and tracked carriers, field pieces and personnel carriers.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other top Soviet leaders shared their place of honor atop the Lenin-Stalin mausoleum with President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, visiting there.

Pair Bound Over On Arson Charge

Hastings, Neb. (AP) — Walter A. Bowen, 22, and Clyde Rice, 23, both of Hastings, waived preliminary hearing in county court on first and second degree arson complaints.

The charges were filed in connection with a farm fire and a fire at a district school. County Attorney Mel Kammerlohr said the 2 men admitted setting 5 fires in Hall, Clay and Adams Counties over the weekend. He said the men could give no reason for their actions.

Both were bound over to District Court and released on $1,000 bond each.

2 Officers Killed In Trainer Crash At French Base

Strasbourg, France (AP) — Col. Walter E. Clarke, 42, U.S. air base commander at nearby Phalsbourg, and co-pilot Capt. William J. Perkins were killed Thursday in a jet plane crash.

The 2 were in a T33 jet on a training flight. First reports said engine trouble developed. The plane crashed in a wood about a mile from the airfield. Clarke's body with an unopened parachute was found 800 yards from the wreckage. Perkins' body remained in the plane.

Clarke, commander of the base since last August, was popular with the Alsatian French residents of this section of eastern France. He had organized a collection of more than $500 among his men to help a young French boy stricken with polio. A veteran of World War II, he had more than 4,400 flying hours.

The Air Force withheld the home addresses of the victims until next of kin are notified but said Clarke, married, was the father of 5 children, and Perkins, a married veteran of the Korean War, was the father of 4.

Role Of Youth In Nebraska GOP 'Vital'

Youth plays a prominent role in the Nebraska Republican Party, young GOP National Committeeman Donald R. Ross of Omaha Thursday night told University of Nebraska Young Republicans.

He had plenty of evidence to cite. State Chairman Richard E. Spelts of Grand Island is 38. John Cooper of Humboldt, newly-named chairman of the finance and budget committee, is 47. Ross himself is 35.

In contrast, Ross said, young men are seldom elected to party positions in the Nebraska Democratic Party.

Ross urged his listeners to join what apparently will be a huge GOP campaign machine poised to move into action after May 13, primary election results are known. Republicans have only recently reorganized and strengthened their women's division to spearhead a massive bell-ringing campaign.

In question and answer sessions, Ross:

—disagreed with National Chairman Meade Alcorn's prediction that the Democrats will win the Senate in 1958 elections. Admitting the odds favor the Democrats, Ross said he "hasn't given up.

—said the recession or lack of it in November will play "a very vital role" in national elections, but not in Nebraska. He pointed to labor as a key 1960 presidential year issue, noting that "the Democrats are completely under the influence of the labor movement."

—predicted a clean sweep for his party in Nebraska this November.

—pressed for a prediction, named Vice President Nixon and either Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey or Adlai Stevenson as 1960 presidential nominees.

Store Sales Show Gain

. . . In March

Washington (AP) — Government reports Thursday showed sales of both department stores and merchant wholesalers were up in March from those of February.

Both, however, were down from the figures of a year ago. The wholesalers' sales in the first quarter were off 10% from the same 3 months of 1957.

The Federal Reserve Board said department store sales in March "recovered substantially from the low level of February."

The board's seasonally adjusted index of store sales in March was 131% of the 1947-49 average, on the basis of preliminary figures. This compared with an index figure of 124 for February and 137 for March, 1957.

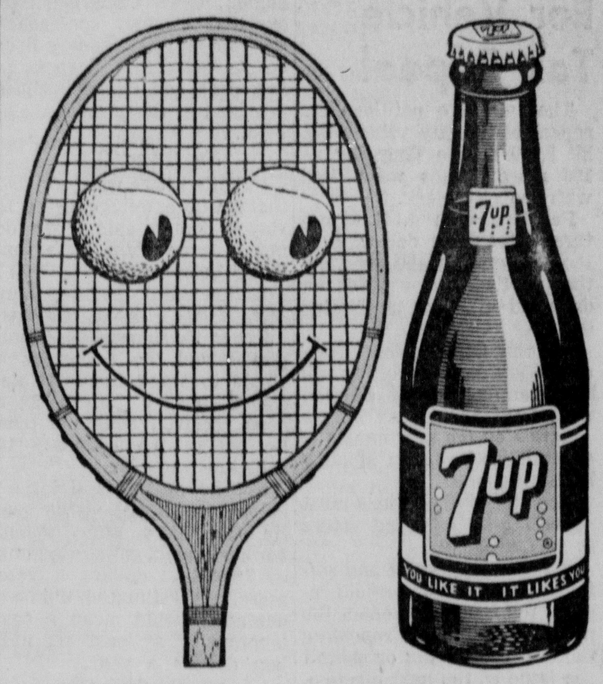

The board also reported that department store sales last week were 4% higher than during the similar week of 1957.

Reds To Return Iranian Aides

Tehran, Iran (AP) — Russia agreed Thursday to return 4 royal aides of the Shah and 2 crewmen and the Army plane forced to land in bad weather on Soviet territory Sunday.

The aides had been escorting the Shah on a tour near the Soviet frontier.

Balloon Launched By Rocket 50 Miles In Sky

Washington (AP) —Launching of a balloon by rocket at 50 miles in the sky was announced Thursday by Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, director of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (NACA).

Dryden said the rocket was sent aloft last Friday at sundown at Wallops Island, off the eastern shore of Virginia.

He said the released balloon inflated successfully to a diameter of 12 feet and was tracked by radar for about an hour.

The project was preparatory to an attenpt to send aloft a much bigger bag, 100 feet in diameter, which the NACA hopes to place in orbit at a height of 400 miles. Dryden said the larger balloon would be useful in studying long range communications as radar could be bounced off its surface.

The balloon disappeared over the Atlantic after it came down to 40,000 feet and was whisked out to sea by the jet stream.

Dryden said a standard 4-stage military rocket, which the NACA bought, put the balloon into the atmosphere.

U.S. May Shoot First Rocket To Moon Next Year

Phoenix, Ariz. (INS) — Bell Aircraft Corp. President Leston Faneuf said the U.S. may shoot its first rocket to the moon "by next year" and predicted a manned trip to the satellite in about 15 years.

The Buffalo, N.Y., aircraft company executive made the statement here in an address at a meeting of the Lithographers National Association.

He declared:

"Man will conquer space when man is able to get into space, maneuver at will while he is there and get back down out of space."

President To Address Middie Commencement

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower will deliver the commencement address at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., on June 4.

Announcing this Thursday, the White House said Eisenhower also will participate in other graduation ceremonies at the Academy.

This will be the first time Eisenhower has addressed a graduating class at the Academy. In 1955 he spoke at commencement exercises at the U.S. Military Academy, his alma mater, at West Point, N.Y.

Better GM Offer Rumor Denied

Motor Company Standing Firm, Negotiator Seaton Says

Detroit (AP)—General Motors Corp. firmly denied reports it might come up with a better offer to the United Auto Workers union before the deadline of contract expiration May 29.

Such reports have been circulating in the industry for the past 2 days.

Vice President Louis G. Seaton, GM's chief negotiator, told a news conference the company is standing firm on its offer to renew wage increases and fringe benefits provided in the present contract.

No Other Offer

"That's where we stand and that's where we are going to stay," Seaton said. "We do not have any other offer under development."

Seaton said the company feels it has a broad responsibility to its shareholders, employes and the nation as a whole to stand firm. He declared many letters have been received from the public urging the company to hold the wage line.

But he said this did not mean keeping the status quo. He said GM's offer meant workers would get a minimum of 7 million dollars a year more. He estimated union demands would mean a cost increase of at least 511 million dollars a year.

No Confirmation

Seaton had no comment on the reports that GM, Ford and Chrysler were getting together behind the scenes on bargaining policy. Along with these reports came the rumors that a juicier plum would be offered the union by the Big Three.

So far the companies have made identical responses to union demands.

UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock described GM's stand as a tactical maneuver. He said the union had considered and rejected the company's offer which provides an annual wage increase of at least 6 cents an hour, plus cost of living allowances.

5,069 Ask For Vehicle Tax Repeal

The initiative petitions for repeal of the city vehicle tax hit 5,069 names Thursday as 166 more names were filed with the city clerk.

Petitions with 4,144 signatures have been delivered to the election commissioner, but the qualified voter count is not expected to begin until after the May 13 election.

Election Commissioner Harold Gillett says his office will be swamped with election work until about May 17.

Action on the new names is expected to be taken Monday by the Council.

The initiative petitions must contain 2,580 qualified voters to be sufficient.

If found both valid and sufficient, the petitions would require the Council to enact the proposed ordinance repealing the city vehicle tax or submit the issue at the next election, foreseen as the November general.

Recession

Sonora, Calif. (AP) — This town in the heart of California's '49er gold rush country has its own brand of recession. Its main street dropped as much as 4 inches.

Highway crews solved the mystery by drilling through 2 inches of paving and 5 inches of concrete. They broke into a mining tunnel, perhaps 100 years old, that was 13 feet long, 6 feet wide and 7 feet deep.

Robbery Attempt Nets Lincolnite 3 Year Term

Clifford J. White Cow of Lincoln Thursday was sentenced by Lancaster District Judge Harry A. Spencer to 3 years in the State Penitentiary on a robbery charge.

White Cow, 21, had pleaded guilty to an assault with intent to rob charge. He was charged with attempting to grab the purse of a Lincoln woman Apr. 20 near 50th and Baldwin.

Board Of Control To Discuss Site Of Mental Clinic

Board of Control officials and a representative of the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute will go to North Platte Friday to further discuss the location there of a mental health clinic as authorized by the 1957 Legislature.

Board of Control Member Harold Peterson said he would be accompanied on the trip by the Board's Engineer Carl Botsford, and Dr. Thaddeus P. Krush of Omaha, director of community services for the Psychiatric Institute.

The Legislature appropriated $40,000 to establish the North Platte clinic. Space for the clinic will be provided in the North Platte Memorial Hospital.

The state will rent the area from the hospital which is paying the remodeling costs.

Ress To Address Millard Lions Club

L. N. Ress, state engineer, will address an evening meeting of the Millard Lions Club May 12 on the expected economic effects of the interstate highway and its approaches in the Millard area.

The Highway Department recently let contracts totaling $1,407,720 for various types of interstate work in the Millard area.

Sen. Clark Calls For Candor In U.S. Reports On Unemployment

Washington (AP) — A lack of candor in reporting on unemployment figures were imputed by Sen. Clark (D-Pa) to President Eisenhower and Secretary of Commerce Weeks.

Weeks denied the charge and accused Clark of "playing politics with the plight of the jobless."

Clark told the Senate that the number of unemployed, when the figures are adjusted for seasonal factors, increased 372,000 in April over March, whereas Weeks had reported a decline of some 78,000.

The senator said Weeks was candid in reporting the unemployment figures and that Eisenhower "compounded the lack of candor, perhaps inadvertently," in commenting on them at his press conference.

Clark said the use of gross figures is meaningless because there is a regular seasonal swing in employment and unemployment during the year. When unemployment figures are adjusted for the first 4 months of this year, he said, they show a steady increase in unemployment.

Actually, Clark said, the recession is getting worse instead of flattening out.

Weeks issued a statement saying the unemployment figures were the regular official monthly estimates of the Census Bureau, issued just as they have been for 15 years.

Asserting the facts "clearly disprove his reckless charge of distortion," the secretary said:

"The fact overlooked by the senator is that 600,000 more people were at work in April —to a total of 62,900,000—and 78,000 fewer were unemployed."

Weeks said his announcement "most certainly did" state that the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment rose from 7% of the labor force in March to 7½% in April, and that it "gave reasons for this rise."

TV Official Blasts FBI Chief's Claim

Los Angeles (AP)—A television industry leader took issue Thursday with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover on crime in TV programs.

Hoover in an editorial in the FBI Bulletin said the nation is threatened "with a flood of movies and television presentations which flaunt indecency and applaud lawlessness." He said they are an "affront to our national conscience" and connected them with outbreaks of juvenile violence.

President Harold E. Fellows of the National Assn. of Broadcasters, closing its convention here Thursday, replied in a formal statement:

"To the best of my knowledge, and that of the members of the Television Code Review Board, there have never been released any authoritative studies, made by accepted scientific methods, supporting the contention that television contributes materially to juvenile delinquency.

"On the other hand, there have been many studies by educators, librarians and others showing that television is a constructive influence on our young people.

"The television code of the NAB admonishes against violence and indecency. We are constantly monitoring stations for adherence to television code provisions. Our research shows that programs presented by television code stations and networks reflect the national conscience."

$1 Costs 20-Year-Old 3 Years In Reformatory

Roger L. Scheer of 1126 So. 7th was sentenced to a 3-year Men's Reformatory term Thursday in Lancaster District Court on a robbery charge.

Scheer, 20, had pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to the charge before Judge Harry A. Spencer. He was charged with forcibly robbing a 66-year-old Lincoln man of about $1 in change March 29 on a farm north of Lincoln. His companion in the crime, Richard D. Craig, 19, of 2904 No. 48th, previously was sentenced to a 3-year Reformatory term.

State Newsmen Will Hear Speech On 'Freedom Of Information' Topic

Nebraska's professional newsmen will hear a discussion of "Freedom of Information" by Victor Bluedorn, executive director of Sigma Delta Chi, on May 9, at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Speaking at the initiation dinner of the professional journalistic fraternity, Bluedorn will tell of the battle being waged all across the nation by SDX against suppression of news.

Bluedorn, who recently finished his 12th year as fraternity director, was formerly a public relations officer in the Army and editor and publisher of 3 Iowa newspapers.

Mack Lundstrom of Holdrege and Jack Pollock of Stanton, University of Nebraska Journalism School seniors, will also present adiscussion of "Freedom of Information" at the 7:30 p.m. banquet.

State Survey

The 2 seniors have just completed a survey of the problems of Nebraska newsmen in obtaining information from government officials, meetings and similar news sources.

Before the banquet, the University chapter of Sigma Delta Chi will install new officers Richard Shugrue of Lincoln, president; Lyman Cass of Ravenna, vice president; Bob Ireland of Lincoln, secretary, and Carroll Kraus of Columbus, treasurer.

Eight University students to be initiated during the evening are: Bob Ireland, Lincoln; Carroll Kraus, Columbus; Don Willey, Lincoln; Del Hood, Palmer; Ernie Hines, Grand Island; Sam Hall, York; Ron Speer, Chadron; and George Moyer, Madison.

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

Tokyo is the biggest booming nightclub town in the world. Beside Tokyo, Paris is a quiet night on Main street, Ohio. My newspaper is filled with ads:

Come to Club Bangbasha —Where You Will Forget Your Troubles.

I cannot forget my troubles. But am willing to make the old college try.

The other night we went down to Ginza. Ginza is the main shopping street. But the area back of it is filled with bars and night-clubs. Little alleys of restaurants and neons. Japanese lanterns and Beautiful Hostesses.

"You like beautiful hostess, sir?" said the headwaiter.

"Could I look first?"

"Better you have beautiful hostess, sir. Very charming. Treating you very nice, sir. Always smiling at you."

A Beautiful Hostess appeared from the bench. They have a bench. Just like a football team. The Beautiful Hostess smiled at me.

"You like dance?"

"Why, yes ma'am. If they will play something slow. A Strauss waltz, possibly. Or if fast, something we can do the Bunny Hug to."

"More better samba," said the Beautiful Hostess smiling. You would think it would crack their make-up. Or their disposition.

We did a little samba. That is, the Beautiful Hostess did a samba. I sort of followed around. Stamping my feet.

"You give 1000 yen, please?"

"What for, ma'am?"

"Hostess no pay. Just get 1000 yen an hour. When get 1000 yen, must pay night-club 200 yen.

I gave the Beautiful Hostess 1000 yen. About $2.75 U.S. It seemed a great deal for a smile. But I will say she smiled hard.

☆ ☆ ☆

In the daytime, we go to the Albion. This is a daytime nightclub. A jukebox plays out of a speaker set that fills the whole wall. It plays LOUD! So absolutely screaming loud you cannot hear anybody speak. You write your order on a pad.

The Albion is a coffee house. Tokyo has gone mad for the most elaborate coffee houses.

The coffee costs 30 American cents per small cup. The waitress gets a percentage on each cup . . . After you get the coffee (and the music is playing LOUD!), she stands in front of you and dances.

☆ ☆ ☆

Overhead, there is a maze of colored lights that turn slowly, making different patterns. The walls are mirrored. In the mirrors there are hundreds and hundreds of reflected waitresses.

There is a heavy sale of coffee in the Albion. Packed all day.

You know what? There is an even heavier sale on cigarettes. Everybody seems to smoke a good deal. Wiggle, wiggle! Boom, boom! Puff, puff!

Alaska Statehood Bill Likely Before House Soon

Washington (AP) — Alaska statehood advocates Thursday obtained House leadership approval to bring the statehood bill to the House floor May 14 if the rules committee doesn't act before that.

The date was suggested by Chairman Engle (D-Calif) of the House Interior Committee and accepted by Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, House Democratic leader, during an exchange on the House floor.

The Alaska bill has been before the rules committee since last June but the committee has taken no action on it.

McCormack said he hopes the Rules Committee will act on the bill before the May 14 date to permit more orderly procedure on the House floor. But he said that if the bill is to be acted upon this session by both the House and the Senate it "must get going."

Earlier in the day Rep. Miller of Nebraska, ranking Republican on the House Interior Committee, proposed that Alaskans be given another opportunity to vote on whether they want immediate statehood.

He said Alaskans have not voted directly on statehood since 1946. He recalled also that a poll which he conducted through Alaskan newspapers and radio stations last year brought 1,394 letters against immediate statehood and 522 for it.

Secretary of the Interior Seaton said at a news conference later, however, that the Alaska statehood bill supported by his department has a built-in referendum proposal.

He said this calls for submission to the voters of proproposed amendments to the Alaskan constitution, already approved by the voters once.

"So far as I'm concerned, on the basis of my 8,000-mile trip to Alaska last year, I can count on my fingers the persons who availed themselves of that opportunity to protest," Seaton said. "I was literally mobbed by those for statehood."

May Showers Due In Parts Of U.S.

Showers and thunderstorms are expected Friday for the southern Plains, Mississippi Valley, Gulf coast states and along the mid-Atlantic areas. Warm weather will continue in the southeast. Most of the country will have mild temperatures with clear to partly cloudy skies. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Northern Gas Head Amazed By Charges

Omaha (AP) — John Merriam, president of Northern Natural Gas Co., said "it is amazing to us that we should be accused of conspiring to block service" to northern Minnesota communities as charged by a Federal grand jury.

Merriam pointed out that Northern was the first company to file an application to serve the communities.

His comments were in connection with the action of a Milwaukee Federal grand jury in returning an indictment charging Northern and 2 other companies with conspiracy to prevent new gas competition in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois.

The other firms are American Natural Gas of New York and Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co. of Chicago.

The grand jury charged the companies conspired to prevent importation of Canadian gas by Midwestern Gas Transmission Co., a subsidiary of Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston. Merriam, who was indicted as an individual, said Midwestern's application followed that of Northern and, in fact, delayed service to not only northern Minnesota communities but others in that state and in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

10 Nebraskans Win 4-Year Scholarships

Chicago (AP)—The names of more than 1,000 winners in the nation's largest private scholarship program were announced Thursday.

The 1958 four-year college scholarships represent a total investment of more than $5 million by the National Merit Scholarship Corp., and 75 business and industrial corporations, foundations and other groups.

More than 256,000 students, about 17% of the country's entire high school senior enrollment, entered this year's competition as nominees of 13,750 high schools. The winners survived 2 college aptitude tests and displayed high personal achievement.

The grants to the winners vary from a minimum of $100 to $2,000 for each of the four years. The average stipened is about $650 a year.

The program was set up initially by grants from the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Corp. Industry has contributed an increasingly larger share since the program was started in 1956.

Following are the 1958 winners who attended high school in Nebraska, the high school attended, the name of the scholarship, the college he intends to enter and the major field of study.

Larry L. Dornhoff, Heartwell, Minden High School, The Camille and Henry Dreyfus Foundation Merit Scholar, University of Nebraska, chemistry.

Catherine J. Crank, Norfolk, Norfolk High School, Sears Foundation Merit Scholar, Ottawa University, journalism, teaching.

Alvin A. Armstrong Jr., North Platte, North Platte High School, Ideal Cement Co. Merit Scholar, California Institute of Technology, mathematics.

Cecelia A. Arbuthnot, O'Neill, St. Mary's Academy, National Merit Scholar, Regis College, English or History, teaching.

Frederick R. Rickers, Wayne, Wayne High School, National Merit Scholar, University of Nebraska, mathematics.

Donna M. Mills, Lincoln, Brownell Hall, National Merit Scholar, Charleston College, mathematics.

Stephen J. Dickinson, Omaha, Westside High School, Sears Foundation Merit Scholar, Carleton College, government and international relations.

Willard L. Rodgers Jr., Omaha, Benson High School, University of Omaha, business administration or mathematics.

Robert L. Smith, Omaha, Benson High School, Harvard, literature, teaching.

Youngsters In Institutions Needing Acceptance As Normal Kids—Jones

Omaha (AP) — Children living in institutions should be "accepted as normal kids" and made to feel that they are welcome participants in the various youth activities and social life of the communities, the Nebraska Association of Child Care Institutions was told Thursday.

Youngsters living in Nebraska's children's homes often have trouble in being accepted, Leroy H. Jones of Fremont said. Jones, head of the Children's home at Fremont, was chairman of the conference.

Jones said children are being accepted to a greater extent than a generation ago, "but we have a long way to go."

He said there is a need for more case workers, remedial teachers and personnel to provide psychiatric service. The need for specialized care has become more pronounced in recent years, Jones said, "because we are caring for an entirely different type of child than we were a generation ago."

He explained that the homes are no longer filled with orphans, mainly because modern medicine is keeping parents alive longer.

"Today most of our children have parents who are living," he said. "But the children are products of broken homes or their parents have neglected them."

Parents attempting to bring up children in this country are put under "terrific strain," Katherine Lenroot, former head of the United States children's bureau said.

Miss Lenroot said parenthood in this country is "a great deal tougher than it is in other parts of the world."

"We're more mobile here," she said. "Our families are constantly uprooting themselves and moving around from place to place. This disrupts family relationships."

In Europe, she said, families have more of a tendency to stay in one place from generation to generation, bringing stability to a child's life through the influence of grandma, grandpa and the aunts and uncles by the dozen.

Plan Enlarging Certain Farms On Federal Projects Attacked

Washington (AP)—Farm and labor groups Thursday attacked a move to enlarge certain farms on federal reclamation projects.

Spokesmen for the Farmers Union and AFL-CIO testified at a Senate Interior Subcommittee hearing on proposed legislation to authorize repeal of a 160-acre farm unit limitation. One bill would permit the secretary of the interior to remove the limitation on proof that larger acreages are needed for economic operation of farms getting water from federal projects.

James G. Patton, national Farmers Union president, said in a statement read by Angus McDonald that acreage limitations should be reduced, not increased.

"The excess lands limitation is actually 320 acres, not 160," he said, "since a department of the interior ruling permitted the owner to transfer 160 acres in excess to his wife.

". . . Studies prove," he added, "that 320 acres of irrigated land is sufficient for a family . . . the question may be raised quite properly that if a crop is so low-priced or land production is so poor as not to produce enough to reclamation project subsidized heavily with taxpayers' money be developed in the first place?

". . . The national Farmers Union recommends that the 320-acre limitation not be increased but that the secretary of the interior, after hearings, be authorized to adjust the limitation downward to adapt it to types of farming characteristic of different areas."

Mrs. Nebraska 'Excited, But Not Nervous'

Omaha (AP) — Mrs. Valonne Milbourn of Shelton, Mrs. Nebraska, took off by plane Thursday for the Mrs. America contest "excited but not nervous."

Pointing out that she is the first farmer's wife to ever win the title in Nebraska, Mrs. Milbourn said "they tell me that there has not been a farmer's wife in the national contest for the past 2 years."

Mrs. Milbourn, accompanied by her husband on the trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., said her special dish will be "ham broiled with horse radish and currant jelly and garnished with peach halves."

$146,625 Aid Given Schools

Washington (AP)—The office of education announced an allocation of $146,625 to the Bellevue, Neb., school district.

The allocation is a part of a federal aid program for school districts affected by federal activities.

Bellevue is next door to Offutt Air Force Base.

Oshkosh To Honor Longtime Teacher

Oshkosh, Neb. — The Oshkosh community Friday will honor Miss Vera Garland, who has been teaching 49 years. A reception will be held at the Oshkosh grade school.

Summer Bride-Elect

MISS HELEN HATCLIFF

Announcement is made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hatcliff of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Verl I. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Scott of Mitchell.

An August wedding is planned.

Mr. Scott is a graduate of the University where he is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and of N Club.

A May Morning Brings Happy News

—there's happy news from here and there this morning —Some of it came from Salinas, Calif., and it has to do with the arrival of Joseph Charles Grainger on Thursday, May 1. Young Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Grainger of Salinas, and his mother if the former Sally White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. White, and Alpha Chi Omega at Nebraska. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Grainger of Salinas.

In addition to the adult members in his family the baby has two ardent admirers in the younger generation—his brothers Bill and Johnny.

* * *

—and from Waukesha, Wis., comes word of the arrival of a daughter, Joy Lynn, on April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burt. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Burt of Lincoln are the paternal grandparents, and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brunmeier, Jr., of Fremont.

* * *

—the news at home is gay this morning, too—For instance there are some exceedingly popular guests arriving today—Capt. Leif S. Melsom, USN, and Mrs. Melsom (the former Barbara Hodgman) will be the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stone.

Capt. and Mrs. Melsom are en route from Glenview, Ill., and the Naval Air Station, to Whidby Island, Wash., where, so we hear, they have purchased a site for their future home. Capt. Melsom will terminate his service with the Navy in October, and very soon after his release the Melsoms will be off to Europe where they plan to spend two years. The home on Whidby Island comes later.

* * *

—when Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fraizer entertain at supper at their home on Sunday evening, it will be a belated courtesy for Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Desmond (Sally Skutt). It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Frazier arrived home from Europe last autumn just barely ahead of the wedding and there were no open dates on the bride's calendar.

The guest list will be composed mainly of Omaha friends of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond, but a small group of Lincoln guests also has been invited.

* * *

—and nuptial courtesies, whether they be post-or pre-bring to mind our June brides — One of these is Miss Carolyn Carter whose marriage to Jack Holmquist will be solemnized on June 14.

Miss Carter and her fiance will be honored this evening when Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wellensiek of Grand Island entertain at dinner at the University Club. The list will include only members of the families.

* * *

—complimenting Miss Carter on Saturday morning will be Mrs. Fred Aldrich, Mrs. Glenn Johnston, Mrs. Dale Schilling and Mrs. Ivan Devoe who will be coffee hostesses at the home of Mrs. Aldrich. The bride-elect will be presented with a one-gift shower.

* * *

—another of the popular brides is Miss Bette Osterlund who has chosen June 10 for her marriage to William A. Fraser, Jr.

On Wednesday Miss Osterlund shared honors with Miss Marilyn Shope, who is to marry Keith Peterson on June 14, when Mrs. Clifford Hicks was a luncheon hostess at the University Club. Luncheon places were arranged for 14, and each of the soon-to-be brides was presented with a hostess gift.

* * *

—complimenting Miss Osterlund next Wednesday will be Mrs. Robert Hackbart and Miss Buffy Carpenter, who have invited guests for a dessert supper and a kitchen shower to be held at the home of Mrs. Hackbart's mother, Mrs. Preston Oder.

To Present Play

The Lincoln Junior League will present "Snow White and Rose Red," its annual children's play at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning at Whittier Junior High School. The performance is free for all small-fry.

A Wedding In June

MISS NANCY CAROL NELSON AND FIANCE

From San Diego this morning comes news of the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alfred Nelson of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy Carol, to James Horton Bell, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley Bell of Lincoln.

The wedding will take place on June 14, and the ceremony will be solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church in San Diego.

The bride-elect is a senior at San Diego State College and is a past president of her sorority, Kappa Delta.

Mr. Bell is a graduate of San Diego State and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity of which he served as president. He will enter the University of Nebraska College of Medicine in the autumn.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

It is time again for the South Hills-Kessler Heights round-up of news, and it seems to be very gay this morning—all about newcomers, parties, birthday celebrations, out-of-town guests and vacationers.

SOUTH HILLS

We'll begin this ayem by extending a hearty welcome to a family foursome who have joined our South Hills suburbia friends. The newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dennis, their two children, Robert, aged 15, and Terry Ann, who is 12 years old—and their new home is located at 1911 Brower Road. We understand that Robert already is taking part in the sophomore class activities at Southeast High School, and Terry is making new acquaintances at Irving Junior High where she is having fun joining in the whirl of extra-curricular activities with her seventh grade classmates.

Although the Nebraska climate is not conducive to such projects as prowling through the sage brush to collect Indian arrow heads—that was one of the families' favorite hobbies in Arizona — there will be many occasions this summer and autumn when the Dennis foursome can enjoy another of their pastime pleasures—fishing, and hunting.

Mention of the Dennis family reminds us that many of the usual neighbor courtesies have been a part of their "get-acquainted" role in the suburb, and it was on Thursday morning when Mrs. J. P. Wegele dropped in for coffee and an informal chat with Mrs. Dennis.

Heard that Mr. and Mrs. Roswill Johnson motored to Omaha last Sunday to attend a dinner party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Doyle Gustafson. The event was an informal birthday courtesy honoring Mr. Johnson's father, Charles Johnson of Omaha, and twelve guests were on hand for the party.

KESSLER HEIGHTS

A young Miss in Kessler Heights who has added her name to the bassinet membership list is Karen Marie Peterson who arrived at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Saturday, April 15. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Peterson and her brother and sisters are Merrill, Connie and Kathy.

Miss Peterson's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Peterson and her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Jacobson, all of Salt Lake City, Utah. We heard that Mrs. Jacobson arrived in Lincoln last Sunday to spend some time with the Peterson family.

Out-of-town guests in the suburb last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clark of Nebraska City who were guests at the home of Mrs. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sorenson.

We understand that Jimmy Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hathaway, will be four years old on Sunday, May 4, and to honor the occasion his mother will be hostess at an afternoon party. Guests for the gala affair will be, in addition to Jimmy's sister, Tami Sue, Jimmy Essmann, Del and Terry Spilseth, Kathy and Mary Aeschliman, Joanie and Tommy Knaub, Davey Stoddard, Brad and Mary Kay Roth, Jeanie Jones, Dennis Taylor and Kim Simon.

Hospital Children Have Guests

Perhaps to some people yesterday was just another Thursday — but to the children at Orthopedic Hospital it really was May Basket Day, and there were 60 May baskets, made by loving hands, that proved the point.

The members of Brownie Troop 26, of which Mrs. C. R. Barnes is leader, and Mrs. Max Harding, assistant leader, made the May baskets especially for the children at Orthopedic Hospital, and eight little Brownies delivered them in person — after school.

PEO Presidents Party

The members of Chapter FF, PEO, were hostesses to the presidents of Lincoln PEO chapters Thursday evening at a party held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Hughes.

Also included among the special guests were Mrs. L. C. Newell, state organizer of the Nebraska Chapter of PEO, and Mrs. T. H. Leonard, president of the Lincoln PEO Round Table.

A program on spring milinery was presented by Mrs. Roger Cunningham.

State Day

Phi Mu sorority at Nebraska Wesleyan University held its 8th annual State Day last Sunday with a coffee and banquet at Cotner Terrace.

Special guests were Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Ft. Worth, Tex., national finance chairman for collegiate chapters; Mrs. Harry E. Andrews, Omaha, national chairman of alumnae fraternity education; and Mrs. Richard Sully, Council Bluffs, district alumnae director.

Active chapter awards were presented to Miss Leslie Weiser of Havre, Mont., Miss Audrey Hayes, Odell, and Miss Diana Lea.

Dear Abby . . .

To Share Is Only Fair

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married in June and am now receiving a host of engagement gifts as well as shower gifts such as toasters, irons, linens, glasses, etc. I will be living with my mother-in-law for the first year. She expects me to bring all my new appliances and other gifts into her home for use. Do you think this is fair or am I wrong?

BRIDE

DEAR BRIDE: If your mother-in-law is willing to share her home with you, you should be willing to share your toaster, iron and what-have-you with her. Better change your attitude, young lady. The success of your marriage is more dependant upon what's in your heart than what's in your gift boxes.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My mother has been driving me to and from high school, but the boy next door just got his license and has a car of his own so she keeps after me to hook a ride with him. She doesn't seem to understand that if I push myself on this boy he will think I am chasing him. Do you think it's right of my mother to make me hook rides from him when I feel like I do?

RATHER WALK

DEAR RATHER: There is more than just a "ride" involved. Your pride should be considered. If you'd rather walk — put your best foot forward.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I always taught that jealousy was a sign of true love. I tried to see how much my boyfriend cared for me so I flirted with other boys, but he didn't seem to mind. Is there any other test I can use?

LOIS

DEAR LOIS: Jealousy is a sign of immaturity — and a lack of self-confidence. Love is based on mutual trust so don't try to test it by flirting.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My son has been in Paris, France, in the service and he has become infatuated with one of those French women. He is planning on marrying her. I have noticed that these French women have very little mother love for their children. They just go from man to man. How can I prevent this woman from using my son as a means to get a free trip to America?

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: You are taking a lot for granted. You do not even know this French woman and your are condemning her. I am not aware that French women have any less "mother love" than American (or any other) women. Give her a chance. You might like her.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICYHOLDER:" Don't cancel. Tell her you are very busy and can't chat long. Smile and get on with your gardening.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Nebraskans Tour Europe

Pictured at New York aboard the Empress of Britain as they embarked on a tour of Europe are homemakers and club members from Nebraska. The group will be led by Mrs. Carl Deitemeyer of Lincoln, Mrs. America of 1956, who is pictured at front (behind chair).

The group plans to be gone for several months, and the itinerary will include visits to European homes and women's clubs.

Honored

Miss Sheri Olson, a senior at Nebraska Wesleyan University, will be presented the American Association of University Women annual award to senior women Friday morning at the Wesleyan Honors Convocation.

Miss Olson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olson of Bartlett.

DAR Board

The executive board of St. Leger Cowley Chapter of DAR will meet for a 12:15 o'clock tray luncheon Friday at the YWCA. A business meeting will follow.

Luncheon

The members of the Lenox Club went to Bennet last Wednesday afternoon to be the guests of Mrs. W. W. Williams. Following a covered dish luncheon, the afternoon hours were spent with games and cards.

Scientists Say Fallout Is Twice Rate Set By AEC

Claim Estimate Not Significant

Washington (AP) — Two Weather Bureau scientists estimated that radioactive strontium from bomb tests is falling out of the stratosphere at twice the average annual rate calculated by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

But one of them, meteorologist R. J. List, told a reporter "this is not necessarily significant in terms of biological hazard." He said:

"We are not biologists, but the difference between our estimate and that of the AEC doesn't look to us as though it would be significant biologically, considering all the other uncertainties that go into the computation of the biological hazard from radioactive strontium."

Strontium, in sufficient quantities in the body, could cause some bone cancer.

Test Debris

List and meteorologist Lester Machta gave their estimate in a report prepared for a symposium on radiation sponsored by the Washington chapter of the Federation of American Scientists (FAS).

The report was chiefly concerned with that part of the radioactive debris from bomb tests that rises to the stratosphere where it may remain for a relatively long time. This type comes mostly from tests of H-bombs. It is distinguished from debris that gets into the troposphere, the lower part of the atmosphere.

Fallout from the troposphere comes down to earth in a matter of only a month or 2 from the time of a test. It comes mostly from A-bombs, not H-bombs.

As regards the strontium in the stratosphere, the AEC has estimated that only 10% of it comes down on the average every year.

The Weather Bureau meteorologists estimated that the average annual rate is 20%.

Fraternity Has 'Ellen Smith' Terrace

Zeta Beta Tau members lounge on their newly acquired terrace built with bricks from the University of Nebraska landmark, Ellen Smith Hall, which was torn down recently. The fraternity, located across the street at 14th and R, seized the opportunity to pick up enough material for a sidewalk patio from the ruins. Skindiver Finally Wins Tussle With A Grabby Shark

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — Skindiver Johnny Bower just wanted a nice underwater ride when he grabbed a 5-foot shark by the tail.

But the fish turned around, bit him in the thigh and wouldn't let go.

A companion, Burt Williams, joined the drama in 30-foot water off Miami Beach. He began holding the tail while Bower—who was doing some underwater sweating — grabbed the gills.

"I wanted to keep the shark from whipping and tearing my buddy's flesh," Williams said. He also fired a spear through the shark, which held on until all 3 reached a boat.

Men in the boat cut the shark away from Bower's thigh.

Bower, a Britisher, wasn't hurt. He said "only teeth marks to show for it, you know."

Spencer Rejects Krajeski's Appeal For Pen Release

Lancaster District Court Judge Harry A. Spencer Thursday denied the habeas corpus petition of State Penitentiary inmate Robert Krajeski, whose home is in Gordon, Neb.

Krajeski, 28, had filed the petition asking that he be released because the judge who sentenced him on 2 bad check charges failed to state whether the sentences were to run consecutively or concurrently. Judge Spencer listed no reason for refusing the petition in his denial order. Arguments on the petition were presented last week.

Paying Debts

Washington (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board reported that Americans again in March paid off installment debts at a faster rate than they incurred new debts.

Outstanding installment credit declined 180 million dollars last month after seasonal factors were taken into account. The decline was due almost entirely to slump in new credit for automobile purchases.

United Lutheran Church Slates Vocation Meet

The Central States Synod of the United Lutheran Church will hold a church vocation conference at Tabitha Home in Lincoln May 3.

Girls of high school age through 22 years will attend.

Dr. Alfred Young, president of the Central States Synod and former superintendent of Tabitha Home, will be the speaker at the closing banquet on Saturday.

$11,000 Reward Offered In Dixie Racial Bombings

Jacksonville, Fla. (AP) — Rewards of $11,000 have been offered for apprehension of persons involved in racial dynamitings here and in Birmingham, Ala.

A Negro high school and Jewish synagogue were damaged at Jacksonville Monday. Rewards of $2,700 have been posted.

At Birmingham, rewards of $8,310 have been offered for apprehension of whoever put 54 sticks of dynamite beside Temple Beth-El. The fuse burned out a minute from the bang.

The Jewish Beth-El Temple at Miami was bombed in March—the same day a synagogue was dynamited in Nashville. In 1951 Miami had a series of bombings, damaging several synagogues and a housing center.

Mayors and police officials of these 4 cities will meet here Saturday to review the situation; try to determine the pattern of the dynamitings; see how those responsible may be apprehended and how future bombings may be prevented.

Extra Speed

Washington (AP) — The Treasury Department, putting on extra speed to get refunds back to taxpayers, reported it had mailed $2,452,000,000 in income tax overpayments by April 24.

This was 35% more than a year ago at the same date. Secretary of the Treasury Anderson predicted that substantially all refund checks will have been issued by mid-May, 2 weeks ahead of the normal target date.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. Silky, Tim Tam Head List Of 16 Derby Entrants

By Bob Considine

Louisville (INS) — The recession stops at Churchill Downs.

Sixteen 3-year-old beasts were entered Thursday in Saturday's 84th running of the Kentucky Derby. The winner is guaranteed $100,000 and an itching blanket of roses—with his name to be posted on the facade of the old spired grandstands many years after he has joined the federal service a the glue on the back of stamps.

One of the loudest ballyhoos in the horse business, plus a good racing record, made California's Silky Sullivan the co-favorite at 5-2 with Calumet's Tim Tam in the early off-course betting. Behind them at this stage of the speculation is Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's three-horse entry, headed by Jewel's Reward, with Eddie Arcaro up. The Maine Chance trio is listed at 4-to-1.

A man named O. K. Anderson, who runs the weather in Louisville, could give no okay to Saturday's conditions. He announced with a sad whinny that it is going to start showering in the area Friday afternoon and he sees no let-up until the last drunk is piped aboard the last bus home on Sunday.

Even if he's wrong, four or five of those who Thursday put up $250 each to stay eligible for the mile and a quarter classic probably will bow out before Saturday.

The original entry list for the 1958 running contained 140 thoroughbreds, whose owners made them eligible for $100. The $250 fee scared out many of the survivors of that first "token" list. On Saturday, those who insist on running must get up a $1,250 starting fee.

All of which swells a pot to which Col. Bill Corum and his associates add $125,000. First place is guaranteed $100,000, the second horse earns $25,000, the third creature is rewarded with $12,500 and the fourth $5,000—figures that stacks up pretty well with almost any TV Quiz program.

Silky Sullivan has lost his last two starts, but most horseplayers are inclined to write them off as pardonable. The long-tailed, big-boned Ross & Klipstein charger from the coast was the first name in the entry box, when the window opened. Second was C. V. Whitney's Flamingo, who has never won, and whose 25-1 odds seem about right.

Then followed Gone Fishin', owned by Liz Whitney Lunn, a 10-to-1 shot right now. Gone Fishin' beat Silky Sullivan April 11 at a mile, in a Golden Gate Field, Calif., race which the trainer did not want to run. Mrs. Lunn's colt finished second here last Saturday to Belleau Chief, finishing ahead of Silky Sullivan once again.

Nadir, Bull Hancock's best, isn't fit and proved it abundantly in the derby trial. The winner of the rich Garden State stakes it out.

Ismael Valenzuela will ride Tim Tam for Mrs. Gene Markey on Saturday, replacing Willie Hartack, the regular Calumet cavalryman whose leg was broken the other day by a rambunctuous two-year-old filly called Quail Egg. Willie had hoped that doctors could make him a special brace that would enable him to ride the big horse. Ismael rode Tim Tam to victory in the derby trial Tuesday.

There's so much publicity about Silky Sullivan that only a few mentions have been made of the fact that Arcaro is out for his sixth derby win—nobody else ever won more than three—and that he likes the chances of Jewel's Reward very much.

Silky Sullivan worked a mile in 1:42.3 at noon before empty stands. The fractions were :14.3; :27.4; :41.1; :54; 1:06.3; 1:18; and 1:29.2.

The California beauty drew the 13th slot in the post positions, which should give him ample racing room. The rail position was drawn by Warren G., a 30-to-one shot believed to have about as much of a chance as the president of the same given name and initial.

CHIEFS RALLY TO NIP DEMONS

Lincoln Solves DM Hurler 4-2

By Don Bryant

Lincoln broke a neatly-cast spell by Des Moines pitcher Lou Hribar in the eighth inning Thursday night, scoring three runs to whip the Demons, 4-2, in a fine game at Sherman Field.

There was none of the gobbledy-gook of the previous inning during the snappy 2:08 contest which featured some dandy pitching.

The Chiefs victory, coupled with Amarillo's 11-10 victory over Albuquerque, moved Lincoln back into first place in the early Western League race.

Three Lincoln pitchers yielded but 4 hits and only one Demon reached base (on a walk) after Don LeJohn hit a solo homer in the fourth to put Des Moines in front 2-0.

All four of the hits came off starter Dewey Williams who worked 5 innings. Ronnie Sheetz and Ed Bauta blanked the Demons the rest of the way, with Bauta—who looks like a worthy successor to Don Williams—getting the victory.

Hribar was just as effective until the seventh. During the first six frames, the hard-throwing Demon righthander was touched for only three infield singles.

But in the seventh Lincoln showed signs of life. With two out and Jimmie Williams on first as a result of a fielder's choice, Vern Piver tripled him home to cut the gap to 2-1.

In the eighth, the Chiefs caught up with Hribar. Julie Javier opened with a triple—he was standing on third when the throw-in reached the Des Moines second baseman—and Earl Fackler singled him in with the tying run.

Fackler skipped to second on a wild pitch and Ray Looney got his second hit to put the Chiefs in front for the first time. Dave Brennan's single moved Looney to third and he scored the final run on Hribar's second wild pitch.

Des Moines first tally came in the third when Harvey Coombs singled, stole second and scored on two successive ground outs.

The final game of the series and the current home stand is slated tonight with either Al Jackson (0-1) or Jim Duffalo (0-0) pitching for Lincoln. Art Wendt (0-0) will go for the Demons.

Game time is 8 p.m., and all college and university students will be admitted for a 50-cent service charge upon presentation of ID cards.

Smoke Signals . . . . . LeJohn's homer was Des Moines' first of the year . . . Demon shortstop Bob Aspromonte made a tremendous play in the fifth to rob Williams of a base hit . . . Bauta hasn't allowed a hit or a run in three relief appearances . . . . Pitcher Dick Shinnick, with the Chiefs since last Friday, was placed on the active list Thursday. An Army returnee, Shinnick won't count in the player limit for 30 days. Dick is 24, stands 6-4 and weighs 200. With Lincoln in 1956, he had a 2-2 record in 28 innings.

Northeast Favorite In Intracity Meet

. . . Lincoln High Defends Title

Lincoln High's reign on the Lincoln Public Schools track and field meet is expected to come to an abrupt end tonight as the Links defend their championship against strong Lincoln Northeast and Lincoln Southeast.

The Links have won the title easily the past four years, but Northeast gets the nod tonight in what could be the closest meet in recent years.

The annual get-together is slated for Nebraska Wesleyan with field events to start at 6 p.m. and the races scheduled for 7:30. Bun Galloway of Northeast will serve as meet director.

None of the meet records is expected to be in any great jeopardy, but four defending champions are back to see about producing a major shakeup of the marks.

In field events, Lincoln High's Larry Snyder defends his shot put crown while Mike Scdoris of Northeast will be shooting for a second straight pole vault victory. Rich Smith of Northeast defends in the high jump and is given a good chance to break the meet record of 5-8⅛.

Reynold McMeen of Northeast will be gunning for a second straight 220 win.

The meet records:

100-yard dash—Ken Nelson, Northeast, 1954, :10.1.
220-yard dash—Ken Nelson, Northeast, 1954, :22.4.
440-yard dash—Darrell Liesveld, Lincoln High, 1955, :53.7.
880-yard run—Gary Larsen, Northeast, 1957, 2:01.5.
Mile run—John Thompson, Lincoln High, 1957, 4:43.
120-yard high hurdles—Dee Haase, Northeast, 1955, :15.7.
180-yard low hurdles—Dick Beachell, Northeast, 1954, .21.2.
880-yard relay—Lincoln High, 1955, 1:33.9.
Mile relay—Lincoln High, 1957, 3:37.2.
2-mile relay—Lincoln High, 1957, 8:50.5.
Shot put—Dick Wood, Lincoln High, 1955, 52-7.
Discus—Larry Hennings, Northeast, 1954, 147-2.
Broad jump—Don Posey, Lincoln High, 1957, 20-5½.
High jump—Jim Fox, Northeast, 1956, 5-8⅛.
Pole vault—Bernie Randolph, Lincoln High, 1954, 12-1½.

Husker Golfers Nip K-State, 11-10

Nebraska's fifth member of the golf team, Tom Folkerson, won his match 2½-½ to give the Huskers an 11-10 victory over Kansas State here Thursday. The win kept NU undefeated at home.

In individual and low-ball play for the top 4 of each team, Nebraska trailed 8½-9½ until Folkerson pulled it out. Mike McCuistion of Nebraska and K-State's Dave Smith both shot 73s for medalist honors.

Mike McCuistion, NU (73) drew with Dave Smith, KS (73), 1½-1½; Larry Romjue, NU (77) def. Charles Hostetler, KS (79), 2½-½. Low ball—Nebraska 2-1.

Jerry Smith, KS (79) def. Tom Kissler, NU (82), 2-1; Jerry Hendricks, KS (84) def. Dennis Mullins, NU (87), 2-1. Low ball—Kansas State 2½-½.

Tom Folkerson, NU (84) def. Mike Richardson, KS (86), 2½-½.

Red Willow Ace Flips Disc 155-11

HOW THEY FINISHED

Red Willow 77¾, Holbrook 27½, Bartley 26 3/7, Farnam 13 6/7, Danbury 4½, Wilsonville 3 3/7, Lebanon 3/7.

McCook—Red Willow weight ace Larry Reiners threw the discus over 150 feet for the second time within a week to lead his team to an easy victory in the Southwest Border Conference meet here.

Reiners hit 155-11 with the discuss, below his 157-8 effort in the Kearney Invitational last week. He also won the shot put with 50-5.

Curvaceous Candidates Vie For Doane Night Relays Crown

POINT BLANK

★ ★ ★

By Don Bryant

Sports Editor, The Star

Alas, the impossible has been achieved.

Max Stone, the Western League's arch-humorist and funster (as well as a good ball and strike man), has objected to a news story about his work on the field.

The veteran WL umpire—a master of the tongue-in-cheek—has directed his "wrath" at me for reporting a rhubarb at Sherman Field "incorrectly."

Last Monday three Lincoln Chiefs were booted (which means they may be subject to a fine) and the rest of the bench was ordered to the clubhouse (which means they were able to get warm.)

I wrote that plate umpire Bill Gentry dismissed Nick Koback, Bill Dial and manager Monty Basgall and that Stone cleared the unruly bench-jockeys.

Stone

"How could you have been so unfair?" Max queried before he left town. "I had absolutely no part in running anyone. It was strictly Gentry's show."

It was pointed out to Max that he raced to the dugout from his umpiring position at first base and started waving players toward the clubhouse.

"I was merely assisting my esteemed colleague in restoring order," Max fumed. Thus warmed up, Stone pointed out the danger of such "erroneous" reporting.

"I don't care for myself," he said. "But consider the feelings of Umpire Gentry. After all, he's a young man trying to make a name for himself as an arbiter. Naturally, he expected full credit for his achievements that night. But what happens?

"You credit me with an assist and detract from his performance. He, of course, had wanted to send a copy of the news story to his mother, but you spoiled everything. You ruined what otherwise would have been a fine night for Bill."

Manfully, I shouldered full blame for the unfortunate incident and for contributing to Umpire Gentry's persecution complex. I should have known—even before Max explained the situation—that he was not in the player-running attitude that night. But he explained anyway.

"I wouldn't have kicked anybody out that night under any circumstances," he grinned. "In fact, I warned the players before the game that they could not anger me enough to order their withdrawal to the clubhouse.

"When it's that cold, and I have to stay out there and shiver for nine innings, everyone else is going to stick it out with me."

Welcome home, Max!

PS: Umpire Gentry graciously accepted my apologies for dividing the thumb credit and promised to shake off the mental anguish resulting from the embarassing slight.

O-State, NU Nine To Meet

Nebraska's Big Eight baseball team left Thursday for Stillwater, Okla., for a three-game stand against the Oklahoma State Cowboys.

The Huskers will meet the Cowboys in a single game today, with a doubleheader slated Saturday.

Oklahoma State currently is third in the league. Nebraska is fifth.

Other weekend games include Kansas State at Iowa State; Kansas at Colorado and loop-leading Oklahoma at Missouri.

After 15 games, Ogallala outfielder Larry Lewis leads the Nebraska batters at the plate. He has 22 hits in 56 trips for a .393 mark. Dwight Siebler, leading pitching with a 5-0 record, is batting at a .438 pace in his 16 appearances as a hitter.

Both Lewis and Siebler are rolling in high gear defensively. Neither has committed an error.

'58 TRACK SEASON GAINING PRESTIGE

By Al Beebe

The 1958 high school track season is rapidly shaping up to compare favorably with seasons in the past 4 years.

With district and state meets yet to come, the time when many of the best marks can be expected, 1958 marks in the 5-year chart are the best in 2 events and are equal in another.

The top marks are the 13¾ pole vault by Merlin (Beanie) Lawrence of Alliance, the best vault ever by a Nebraskan, and the 21.4 220 time by Scottsbluff's Ray Knaub.

The 880 relay mark by Scottsbluff this season equals the mark made in 1954-55-56. Last year, the best was 1:32.2.

Marks in 6 of the 14 regular events are better than last year's season-long efforts. These incluude the 880, mile relay and high jump.

Two of this year's marks are second-best in the 5-year chart. They are the 1:59.0 half mile by Creighton Prep's Tom Komarek, and the 3:30.5 mile relay by Boys Town.

Only in 5 events, the 100, 440, mile, and both hurdles are the 1958 marks the lowest in the 5 years. There are indications that at least 3 of these marks will be bettered.

Wesleyan Runners In Stern Tests

Nebraska Wesleyan University will enter an 11-man squad in 2 important relays this week-end.

Coach Woody Greeno will run his squad in the Sioux Relays at Sioux City, Ia., Friday. The Plainsman squad will compete in the Dakota Relays at Sioux Falls, S. D., Saturday.

Greeno said he will run his crack distance relay combination in 2 events—the mile and 2-mile efforts. Gary Hoffman of Wahoo, Ken Goaverts of Sargent, Lefty Hixson and Dean Sell, both of Lincoln, form this quartet.

The Wesleyan shuttle relay combination of Bob Els, Lincoln; Jim Carr, Seward; Dean Pederson, Hardy and Bob Eberspacher, Beaver Crossing, will also run.

Greeno will enter his freshman distance aces—Ken Metzger, Longmont, Colo., and Art Frieberg, Stanton—in the mile and two mile events.

NU Upperclassmen, Youngsters To Scrap

Friday may be "Spring Day" at the University of Nebraska, but it will be business as usual when football coach Bill Jennings blows the 4 p.m whistle on the spring practice field.

At least the business will be almost as usual. The Husker gridders will scrimmage.

But Jennings, in the spirit of the occasion, has added a new twist to the Cornhusker head-knocking. The freshmen will scrimmage the upper classmen.

"Because we have so many underclassmen and so few juniors and seniors, some of the personnel may wind up on the wrong team," Bill said Thursday. "But the game primarily will pit the youngsters against the upperclassmen. We wanted to do something a little bit different so the boys could have some variation of the routine on 'Spring Day.'"

For the yearlings it apparently will be Roland McDole and Mike Eger, ends; Al Wellman and Don Laabs, tackles; Dick Kosier and John Ponsiego, guards; Don Fricke or Bob Daniels, center; Dean Cozine, quarterback; Pat Fischer, Clay White, halfbacks; and John Minnick, fullback.

NU Netters' String Snapped

Manhattan, Kan. — Kansas State snapped a six-match Nebraska tennis winning string here Thursday downing the Cornhuskers 6-1.

Goryl's Homer Stops Braves

. . . Cubs Regain NL Lead

Chicago (AP)—Rookie Johnny Goryl's solo homer in the bottom of the 9th broke up a 2-2 tie and gave the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 victory over the Milwaukee Braves Thursday.

The victory, coupled with Philadelphia's 7-0 victory over San Francisco, boosted the Cubs back into the National League lead and gave Chicago pitcher Moe Drabowski his first triumph since returning from a military hitch.

In the 6th, the Cubs took a 2-0 lead on Lee Walls' No. 9 homer of the season with none on. Walls thus welled his homer lead and also his RBI advantage, at 17, in the National League. Walls also belted 2 singles for a perfect day in 3 official AB's.

The loser was the 3rd Milwaukee pitcher, Bob Trowbridge, who entered the game in the 9th.

Lew Burdette started for the Braves and hurled 6 innings, while the Cub starter was Glen Hobbie, who left in the 7th.

Semproch Deals SF First Shutout, 7-0

San Francisco (AP) — Rookie Philadelphia right-hander Ray Semproch scored his first victory as a starting major league pitcher Thursday, blanking San Francisco 7-0 and knocking the Giants out of first place in the National League.

Semproch, who spent six years in the minors, notched his first major league victory on opening day with a relief stint against Cincinnati, but this was his first triumph in three starts. The shutout was the first for the Giants this season.

Thomas Sparks 6th Straight Buc Win

Los Angeles (AP) — Frank Thomas belted a pair of home runs, for a total of four over the near-by left field screen in his three games at the Coliseum, and winning pitcher Vern Law popped a three-run homer over the same so-called barrier Thursday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates walloped the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-3. It was the sixth straight success for the Bucs, who jumped into second place in the National League.

Chisox Whip Orioles, 4-3

Baltimore (AP)—The Chicago White Sox made a little go a long way Thursday night, beating the Baltimore Orioles 4-3 on five singles and a double.

Meantime, the Orioles pounded starter Jim Wilson and Billy Pierce, who came on in the eighth, for 10 hits including a homer, four doubles and five singles.

Sherm Lollar—perennial heavy spring hitter—led the last-place White Sox attack, knocking in two runs with his first inning single. Lollar also singled in the third inning.

The other Chicago hits were Nellie Fox' bunt and single and Luis Aparicio's double and single. Aparicio knocked in the White Sox third run with a double in the fourth and later scored on Fox' single to right.

Jim Marshall, obtained by the Orioles from Chicago in a winter trade, knocked in two runs with his first homer of the season in the second inning. He also singled Al Pilarcik home in the fourth.

The Orioles scored their final run in the eighth when Pilarcik picked up his third safety, a single, and Gene Woodling doubled him across.

Narleski Stops Nats On 5-Hitter

Washington, (AP) — Ray Narleski stopped Washington with five hits Thursday night as Cleveland defeated the Senators, 9-1. Mickey Vernon contributed a home run and a triple and Chico Carrasquel supplied a home run and a double to pace the Indians' 11-hit attack.

Albie Pearson, rookie outfielder, accounted for three of the Senators' hits off Narleski, who achieved his third victory against one loss.

Ralph Lumenti, rookie left-hander, started for the Senators and failed to survive the third inning as the Indians clipped him for a run in the first inning and three more in the third.

Hebron's Jim Killinger Runs 51.7 440, But Broken Bow Cops Crown

HOW THEY FINISHED
Broken Bow 54, Ravenna 41½, Hebron 36⅓, Minden 34½, Burwell 27¼, Superior 22 11/12, Loup City 16½, Geneva 5.

Lincoln Star Special

Kearney — Broken Bow dethroned Hebron as champion of the Trans-Nebraska Conference here Thursday, despite a record performance by Hebron's Jim Killinger.

Killinger broke his own 440 dash record of 51.9 with a 51.7 clocking, beating the state's best listed time for the distance of 51.8 by Omaha Central's Ken Russell.

Killinger also won the 220 in 24.6, finished fifth in the broad jump, and anchored Hebron's winning 880 relay team to take individual high point honors.

But Broken Bow and Ravenna both finished ahead of Hebron in the team race. Hebron took the most first places, 4, but Broken Bow used greater depth and field strength to win the meet.

Ron Devish led a 1-2-3 finish for Broken Bow in the discus, while the winners also gained a 2-3-4 in the shot put.

The winners:

100—Allan Hissong, Hebrons, 10.8; 220—Jim Killinger, Hebron, 24.6; 440—Killinger, Hebron, 51.7 (new record); 880—Phil Stineman, Superior, 2:07.9; mile—Ray DeGraff, Burwell, 5:08; 120 high hurdles—Eldon Kieborz, Loup City, 16.7; 180 low hurdles—Dave Anderson, Burwell, 21.9; 880 relay—Hebron (Hissong, Alan Peithman, Bill Miller, Killinger), 1:38.2; mile relay—Ravenna (Gary Stork, Gary Abraham, Dick Mortiz, Kim Cords), 3:44.7; 2-mile relay—Minden (Joe Hultquist, Steve Seward, Joe Meier, Gil Quadhamer), 9:09.9.

Shot—Bruce Christensen, Minden, 48-3; discus—Ron Devish, Broken Bow, 139-3¾; broad jump—Larry Miller, Broken Bow, 20-11½; high jump—Charles Hervert, Ravenna, 5-8; pole vault—tie among Ron Konvalin, Superior, Mike Harpham, Superior, and Dave Dyer, Hebron, 10-6.

Wesleyan Baseballers Topple Concordia 5-1

Seward — Ron Gillham tossed an eight-hitter and got good support from the field and at the plate as Wesleyan defeated Concordia College 5-1 in a Nebraska College Baseball Conference game.

Gillham whiffed eight and walked only three while going the distance. Eldon Vergith and Dick Evenson gave him the necessary power, with Evenson connecting for a triple and Vergith slammed a double and triple.

Paul Surburg, Concordia third baseman, rapped out a pair of doubles for the losers. Don Cholcher, who went the route, was the loser.

Eight bases were stolen during the game, with Concordia swiping two and Wesleyan six.

It Had To Happen: Thinclad 'Shot'

Grant, Mich. (AP) — High school track meet starters may find Grant's freshman quartermiler John McKinley a bit gunshy.

He was shot by his coach in a practice session.

Coach Louis Scott said it happened this way:

His .22 caliber blank-firing starter's pistol jammed. Scott worked over it and held it at arm's length for a test firing. McKinley rose up as the gun fired inches from his chest.

The youth, who wore a heavy sweatshirt, was released after treatment for powder burns on the chest.

SCORE HAS ARM INJURY

Washington (AP)—Herb Score, Cleveland's ace southpaw, may be out of action for some time because of an elbow injury.

Score hurt the elbow while pitching against the Washington Senators. He had to withdraw with two on and one out, in the ninth inning when his arm went lame.

Score

A doctor examined the elbow Thursday and it was reported that Score is suffering from an inflamed tendon. He appears certain to miss his next regular turn on the mound and, if the injury does not heal, could be out for a matter of weeks.

Much will depend on how the elbow reacts when Score tries to throw again, and he probably won't test it for another few days.

Churchill Colt Wins

Newmarket, England (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill had his first winner of the racing season Thursday when his 3-year-old colt, Tudor Monarch, led from start to finish in the Somersham Stakes.

Tudor Monarch, the 5-1 joint favorite, came home two lengths ahead of Asiago, at 13-2, with Barley (7-1) in third place. There were 11 starters in the 7-furlong race.

Sir Winston collected $946 first prize money.

Cerv Cracks 7th Homer Of Year

Boston (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, frustrated throughout most of the game because of weak hitting in the clutch, came up with a pair of runs in the 9th inning Thursday for a 7-6 decision over the Kansas City Athletics.

A leadoff double into the right field corner by Gene Stephens, a single to right by pinchhitter Marty Keough and a double off the wall in left center by Jim Piersall provided Boston a split in the 2-game series.

Prior to that outburst, the Red Sox had left 11 runners stranded. They left the bases loaded in the 1st, 4th and 7th innings.

Homers by Hal Smith and Bob Cerv accounted for 5 of the Kansas City runs. Smith belted a 3-run homer in the 2nd and Cerv connected for his 7th of the season with 1 on in the 6th.

A double by relief pitcher Ray Herbert and a single by Hec Lopez in the 7th gave the A's their 6th run.

The Red Sox picked up a run in their half of the 7th, but left the bases loaded and it appeared they were all done as an old nemesis, Tom Gorman, took over the Kansas City pitching chores.

Gorman, who had an 11-5 lifetime record against Boston, retired the Sox in order in the 8th before running into trouble in the 9th.

Frank Malzone flied out to left after Stephens' double, but Keough lined the 1st pitch just over leaping Vic Power's glove into right to tie the score.

Soviets Under Pressure To Avoid Turndown Of Arctic Plan

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union was under mounting pressure—some coming from satellite nations—to avoid a flat turndown of President Eisenhower's Arctic military inspection plan.

This was the situation in advance of a meeting of the U.N. Security Council, where indication up to now had pointed to a Soviet veto of the U.S. proposal. It aims to eliminate any threat of massive air attack across the Polar regions.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dulles said the United States might curb its nuclear-laden Arctic flights if the Soviet Union would agree to setting up an Arctic inspection system. The Soviet Union wants the Security Council to call on the United States to end all such flights.

Diplomatic informants said Poland and Czechsolvakia had appealed to the Russians to shy away from a strictly negative attitude and to accept the Eisenhower plan in some form, perhaps modified by Soviet amendments.

The informants added that the Communist diplomats had told Moscow it would be a big mistake to veto a plan endorsed by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and neutral nations as a possible means of ending the East-West disarmament deadlock.

There was no word here on what instructions had been sent to the Soviet delegation from Moscow.

Hammarskjold told a news conference he had no reaction thus far from the Soviet Union to his intervention in the Council on behalf of the Eisenhower plan.

Convinced

In response to questions he said he was convinced his relations with governments, including the Soviet Union, did not depend on his views on a key U.N. issue, but on their trust in "my independence, my sincerity, my impartiality and my sense of responsibility."

Hammarskjold expressed the view that even if the council fails to break the log-jam on disarmament "the very debate itself, with the elements introduced, has moved the baselines sufficiently to make me feel there is every reason to continue efforts all over the field."

But he warned also that failure to explore all initiatives taken toward disarmament in the past gives rise to the feeling that "we missed the bus, and we should not be too sure that the road will remain open for buses in all the future."

4 Chaplains Okayed For Top Medal

Washington (AP) — The posthumous award of special Medals of Honor to 4 Army chaplains who died in World War II was approved Thursday by the Senate.

The measure, which now goes to the House, would authorize the President to award medals and certificates to Chaplains George L. Fox, Cambridge, Vt.; Alexander D. Goode, Washington, D.C.; Clark V. Poling, Schenectady, N.Y.; and John P. Washington, Arlington, N.J.

They would be in recognition of extraordinary heroism displayed in the sinking of the troop transport Dorchester in the North Atlantic in 1943. The 4 gave up their life preservers to other men aboard the ship.

Torpedo

The transport was in Arctic seas on Feb. 3, 1943, when an enemy torpedo burst in the ship's engine room.

The chaplains went among the men, calming them and helping them prepare to abandon ship. When life preservers no longer were available, the chaplins removed their own and gave them to soldiers who had none.

The chaplains were on deck as the transport sank.

Sen. Javits (R-NY) told the Senate the chaplains represented the protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths and "truly indicate the brotherhood of man."

Scientists Give U.S. Explorers' Death Timetable

Washington (AP) — Explorer I, the first American satellite, is expected to stay aloft until some time in 1962—while its sidekick, Explorer III, is expected to plunge to its death in the upper atmosphere in several weeks.

This timetable was given Thursday by a scientist of the Smithsonian Astrophycial Observatory, Dr. G. F. Schilling.

Indicating that these were shorter lifetimes than originally estimated, Schilling said they are based on Smithsonian calculations that the earth's atmosphere at an altitude of 230 miles is 14 times more dense than was figured in pre-satellite days.

He also indicated that the cylindrical shape of the Explorer satellites tends to make their life shorter, as compared with a spherical-shaped satellite such as the Vanguard now aloft. The latter is expected to last 200 years or more.

17-Year-Old Placed On Probation in Break-In

Norman A. Martin of 2256 S was placed on 3-year probation Thursday in Lancaster District Court on a breaking and entering charge.

Martin, 17, had pleaded guilty before Judge Harry A. Spencer. He was charged with breaking into Clatie's Donut Shop at 342 No. 27th Apr. 23. Police said about $217 was stolen and later recovered from Martin.

Clabber Girl's NUTMEG CRISPS

The Recipe

Sift together 1¾ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder, and ¾ teaspoon salt. Cream together ⅔ cup butter, 1¼ cups firmly packed brown sugar, 1½ teaspoons vanilla extract, and ½ teaspoon almond extract. Add 2 tablespoons water and 1 egg yolk; beat well. Add dry ingredients; stir until well blended. Pack dough into empty 1-pound butter carton, 5 x 2½ x 2½ inches. Chill in refrigerator several hours. Remove dough from carton; slice about ⅛ inch thick with a sharp, thin-bladed knife. Place cookies on baking sheet. Cut each cooky in half to form rectangles; separate cookies 1 inch apart. Beat 1 tablespoon water and 1 egg white together until just combined; brush over cookies; sprinkle with nutmeg. Bake in a 375° F. (moderate) oven about 12 minutes. Cool. Yield: 5 dozen cookies.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THIS ABOUT BAKING

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Macmillan Rejects Plea By 618 Scientists To Halt Pacific Nuclear Tests

London (AP)—A group of 618 British scientists petitioned Prime Minister Macmillan to stop current British nuclear tests in the Pacific.

Macmillan quickly rejected their plea—even before the appeal was published.

Halting the British tests would increase dangers of a third world war, Macmillan said.

Referring to the Soviet Union's announced suspension of nuclear weapons tests, Macmillan added: "unilateral declarations of intention to suspend tests are in themselves of little value."

He made his stand known in a letter to 86-year-old philosopher Bertrand Russell.

Lord Russell had sent him the scientists' appeal. It declared:

"Each added amount of radiation causes . . . damage to the pool of human germ plasm such as to lead to an increase in the number of seriously defective children that will be born in future generations."

Earlier this week Britain announced it had fired another nuclear device in its current series of tests in the central Pacific.

Only Answer

Macmillan said the only real answer to the nuclear problem is agreement to stop production of atomic material under international control.

Signers of the scientists' appeal included Nobel Prize winner Lord Boyd Orr, former director general of the U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization; biologist Julian Huxley, former director of the U.N. Economic, Social and Cultural Organization; Sir Charles Darwin, former director of the British National Physical Laboratory; and 69 fellows of the Royal Society, Britain's top scientific organization.

Chairman Named

New York (AP)—The new chairman of the board of directors of Religion in American Life, Inc., the advertising industry groups which promotes church attendance, is the Rev. Dr. John T. Peters, head of the stewardship department of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Hobo Day At Northeast

The best—and worst—of hobo garb was modeled by Lincoln Northeast seniors at their annual "Hobo Day" held Thursday. Pictured in their hobo outfits (note the fashionable "sack" dresses of the "young ladies") are (from left), Beverly Hogan, Don Nickell, and Judy Williams. (Star Photo)

Total Getting Free Foods Reported Up

Washington (AP) — The Agriculture Department reported Thursday that about 21% more needy persons are receiving free foods from its surplus stockpiles than a year ago.

The number was reported at 4,370,000 compared with 3,441,000 a year ago.

Foods currently available for donation to the needy are butter, cheese, nonfat dry milk, rice, wheat flour and corn meal.

The department also reported that 13,600,000 school children are receiving surplus foods through the government-sponsored school lunch program.

In addition, supplies are going to about 1,400,000 needy persons in charitable institutions.

Dixie State

Mississippi led with the largest number of needy persons receiving these foods. The number was 569,878. Puerto Rico was next with 552,266 followed by Pennsylvania with 531,323, Michigan with 284,043, Arkansas with 263,799, Tennessee with 231,315, Oklahoma with 217,066 and New York with 201,736.

The department said that it had donated 620 million pounds of foods for need persons and the school lunch program during the 9 month period ending March 31.

During this same period, it also donated 1,627,900,000 pounds for distribution among the needy abroad. The bulk of this was flour and corn meal.

Memorial Day DUV Post Goes To Mrs. Russell

Mrs. Pauline Russell was named to the Lincoln Memorial Day Assn. planning committee at a recent meeting of Sarah D. Gillespie Tent No. 7, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

All members of the organization have been called upon to take part in ceremonies to honor war dead on Memorial Day, May 30.

A report from Ylavaune Howard, national president, on the Women's Forum on National Security, in Washington, D.C., was given.

It was announced that the department convention will be held June 15-17 in McCook, and the national convention will be in Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 24-29.

Publicizing Of 7 Proposals Urged By Sen. Tvrdik

Omaha (AP) — State Sen. Charles F. Tvrdik said he would ask the Legislative Council board to consider publicizing 7 proposed constitutional amendments.

The 7 proposals were given a place on the November, 1958, ballot by the 1957 Legislature.

Tvrdik said he agreed with Attorney General C. S. Beck, who said the Legislature should provide for advertising an explanation of such proposed amendments.

Tvrdik, vice chairman of the Legislative Council, said he would ask whether funds were available for publicizing the amendments.

Smyrl Ordered To Continue On Active Duty

Washington (AP) — Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas Thursday ordered continued active duty for Col. James A. Smyrl, ousted training officer at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.

The decision overruled two boards of general officers. The boards recommended Smyrl be dropped from active duty because of a controversy involving Smyrl's skeptic view of roller skating, horseback riding and other non-military pursuits by trainees.

Douglas directed that Smyrl, 39-year-old veteran of World War II and a native of Manchester, N.H., be reassigned immediately outside of the air trainng command.

Douglas gave no reason for going against the considered judgment of a total of eight general officers, but said his decision disapproving their recommendations "completes the administrative action in this case."

U.S. Plans To Use Nuclear Power For TV Cameras On Future Satellites

Washington (INS)—The government disclosed plans to use miniature nuclear reactors to power TV cameras aboard future reconnaissance satellites in outer space.

Maj. Gen. D. J. Keirn lifted the secrecy curtain on the Air Force-AEC "Project Snap"—systems for nuclear auxiliary power for artificial moons.

The chief of the air nuclear propulsion program also predicted that atomic rockets now under development will replace conventional systems for trips to the moon and nearby planets.

Keirn told the House Outer Space Committee that existing chemical fuels will "cease to be practicable or economical" once man begins heavy payload cosmic journeys.

'Rover'

He declared that the first tests of nuclear rocket propulsion, under the "Project Rover" program, will be made at the Los Alamos proving grounds sometime this fall.

The Air Force witness gave the committee the first public summary of the 3-year-old "Project Snap" program. He said it is aimed at "the development of lightweight, long-lived nuclear heat sources in the form of reactors and radioisotopes and the efficient conversion of this heat to useful electric power."

Among "many uses for space application," Gen. Keirn envisioned satellites employing television, elaborate recording devices, electromagnetic recording devices and more powerful signal networks.

10 For 1

The witness declared that present systems require about 100 pounds of rocket take-off weight "for every pound of power plant in orbit." He said: "Future single stage rocket systems employing nuclear power may reduce this ratio to about 10 for 1."

He said that power units far more powerful than anything now used on the earth satellites are possible through the use of lightweight, compact, nuclear reactors or from the heat created by radioactive waste isotopes.

Space Explained

Oklahoma City (AP)—When the first space ship is ready to blast off, there will be a passenger ready to go up in it.

This was the prediction of Maj. Gen. Donald Flickinger as he and almost a dozen other Air Force space experts told 6,000 picked teenagers just what it would take to conquer space.

With all of the enthusiasm of a bop-hop on Saturday night, the top students of some 400 Oklahoma high schools pushed into Municipal Auditorium for a space age conference. And they saw exhibits, cutaway models and an actual Thor missile set up outside.

They heard a star-studded roster of scientists and industrialists background accomplishments in rockets and missiles and predict success in manned space travel.

The conference was sponsored by the Frontier of Science, an Oklahoma group interested in boosting science. The Air Force was eager to explain the space age.

Donna Mae Mills Is Winner Of Merit Scholarship

Donna Mae Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard V. Mills of 1000 Aldrich Road, has been announced winner of a Merit Scholarship awarded by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Miss Mills, who is a student at Brownell Hall in Omaha, is one of about 600 winners in nationwide competition. She plans to major in mathematics at Carleton College in preparation for a career in industrial research.

Other activities of Miss Mills include: Campfire Girls; National Honor Society; Mathematics Demonstration Class at Summer Institute, Kansas University; Alliance Francaise (Omaha) Award; School Paper Editor; Student Council; School Choir; National Science Talent Search; and vice-president of the junior class.

The Merit Scholarship grants vary from a minimum of $100 a year for the four years to over $2,000 a year in cases of great need.

Lineman Goofed

Montreal (AP) — Thirty bank robbery alarms rang out and sent police prowl cars on frantic errands for a half hour. No bank robberies, though. Turned out a telephone lineman accidentally cut in the master alarm wires while on a repair mission.

300 Pay Wheel Tax; Few Complain

Nearly 300 persons had paid the new city wheel tax Thursday.

The annual tax, which became effective Thursday, ranges from $1 to $10 per vehicle and revenue will go to pay for proposed street improvements.

Few complained about the tax, according to Mrs. Mary Dickerson, cashier in the City Hall lobby. Most persons were "very nice" in paying. A few mailed in their payments.

A partial check showed people against more taxes, but "willing to pay this one if it will get us better streets."

A few people came in to pay before receiving their tax statements.

Some 45,000 tax statements have been mailed out. A machine-accounting system, rather than a vehicle sticker, is being used to police the revenue measure.

Another Trip

St. Petersburg, Fla. (AP) — Wilford Wright, a multiple sclerosis victim who has ridden a man-sized tricycle all over this country, will start on a 2,383-mile trip to Newfoundland.

Mrs. Tillinghast To Fill Meter Maid Vacancy

Mrs. Leola Tillinghast of 2216 E will replace Mrs. Doris A. Moyer of 2247 Dudley as a Police Department "meter maid," Police Chief Joe Carroll announced Thursday.

Mrs. Tillinghast has been employed in the parking violations bureau since last September and formerly was a meter maid in Scottsbluff, Neb. Mrs. Moyer, one of the 4 original meter maids hired March 1, resigned effective Wednesday.

Mrs. Theresa Voecks of 1327 E, who is an "alternate" meter maid, will replace Mrs. Tillinghast in the parking violations bureau.

May Be Soon

Los Angeles (INS) — Adm. Charles F. Horne, USN (ret.), declared that a man-carrying satellite may be launched sooner than most people expect.

Horne who is head of the Convair plant in Pomona, Calif., which produces the Terrier surface-to-airplane missile, also said that the Civil Aeronautics Administration should adopt immediately a plan for control of air travel above 17,000 feet to prevent collisions.

Cops Seek St. Louis Tot

St. Louis (AP) — A citywide search was in progress Thursday night for a 6-year-old girl who vanished from her tenement district home at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

The police radio was broadcasting an "attention all cars" alert every hour and special squads of officers were making a door-to-door search in the child's slum neighborhood.

They could find no trace of tiny, big-eyed Kathryn (Kathy) Hampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hampton.

"Nobody can find anybody who even saw her," said the exhausted father, a welder. "Somebody must have carried her off."

Discounted

A kidnaping for ransom was discounted because of the family's modest means, and the parents insisted she could not have run away.

"She was too much of a mommy's girl for that—as far as I know she never left the block except to go to school," Mrs. Hampton said.

Kathy, who had been kept home from school because of a slight throat infection, was last seen in a bedroom in the Hampton's apartment. The bedroom can be reached from a hall in the building.

Fagler Given 4 Months In Non-Support Case

Robert L. Fagler, 32, of Lincoln, Thursday was sentenced in Lancaster District Court to 4 months in the County Jail on a non-support charge.

Fagler had pleaded guilty to violating the terms of the probation on which he had been placed last Sept. 12. He was charged in the original complaint with failing to pay his former wife for the support of their 2 minor children for the month of July, 1957, and was charged in the revocation complaint with again failing to pay the support payments as ordered.

19-Year-Old Arrested In Pop Cooler Thefts

Police said Thursday they had cleared up a series of recent pop cooler break-ins with the arrest of a 19-year-old Lincoln boy.

He reportedly admitted forcing open 6 pop coolers and looting the coin boxes of an undetermined amount of change Wednesday night and also admitted other similar offenses on Apr. 3, 12 and 24.

Sent To Ike

Washington (INS) — Congress sent to President Eisenhower a bill conferring retroactive American citizenship on "Prince" Michael Romanoff, owner of a swank Beverly Hills, Calif., restaurant and colorful figure in international cafe society.

The President is expected, on the basis of a report accompanying the bill, to sign the legislation.

$41,290 Paid 'Reserve Teachers' Under New Bill

A total of $41,290.94 in state benefits was drawn by 242 "reserve teachers" during the initial 8 months of operations of LB 608, Dr. F. B. Decker, State education commissioner, reported.

The bill, passed by the last session of the Legislature, took effect Sept. 17.

Decker said the reserve teachers, who must have been over 65 years of age and had 25 years of teaching service in Nebraska when the bill went into effect, were drawing from $15 to $30 per month, less whatever they might be getting from any other retirement benefits otherwise received.

However, they could not draw more than $360 per year under the reserve teacher category which was established to pay benefits to some retired school teachers not covered by the present state retirement system.

The teachers drawing benefits from the bill had to apply for payments on or before Jan. 1. Those applying after that date were ineligible.

Appropriate More

Decker added that the next session of the Legislature will have to appropriate more money to carry out the purpose of the bill, "which would otherwise become dormant."

Controversy swirled around the bill during the last Legislative session. Sen. Ray Simmons, Fremont, contended the bill would set a dangerous precedent of bringing already retired persons into any new retirement system the state might establish for any class of people.

He also told of an attorney general's opinion indicating the bill could be held unconstitutional.

However, the constitutionality of the bill has not been tested.

Glenn Anderson, head of the State Retirement System, said the maximum any Nebraska teacher is currently drawing in state retirement benefits is $54.96 per month.

$110 Per Month

He said that theoretically, a Nebraska teacher who began instructing in the public school system when he was 21 and continued for 44 years until he were 65, could draw $110 per month in retirement benefits.

Of this amount, $65 would have been paid in by the teacher, and $45 by the state.

Last month, the state paid a total of $58,315.01 to 1,557 retired teachers, who were not in the "reserve teacher" category.

Currently, Nebraska teachers have placed $9,222,000 of their own funds into the State Retirement System. The state has put $5,916,389 into the system.

Governor Issues Five Proclamations

Gov. Victor Anderson has issued 5 proclamations.

He proclaimed the period of May 4 to May 11 as Goodwill Week, sponsored by the Lincoln Goodwill Industries, Ind., and the Nebraska Goodwill industries of Omaha, and as National Music Week.

He designated the period from May 5-10 as White Cane Week, honoring blind Nebraskans, and Friday, May 16 as National Defense Transportation Day.

Anderson proclaimed the entire month of May as National Radio Month in Nebraska.

Nebraska Area Tops In Metal Can Production

The North Central States, including Nebraska, led the nation in metal can production last year, according to figures from the American Can Co.

The 12-state area produced nearly 14½ billion cans, out of some 40 billion produced nationally. Production in the area, however, showed a slight decline from 1956, an all-time record year.

Mrs. Venerable Is Found Guilty

Omaha (AP)—A District Court jury returned a verdict of guilty against Mrs. Yevolia Venerable, 43, Omaha, in the January knife slaying of Syvella Lawson, 42, Omaha. Mrs. Venerable was charged with second degree murder. Sentence was deferred pending a defense motion for new trial.

NWU HONORS CONVOCATION, MAY FETE SET

Wesleyan University will hold its annual Honors Convocation and May Fete activities Friday. Both are open to the public.

Main speaker at the 10 a.m. Honors Convocation in C. C. White Auditorium will be Dr. Vance D. Rogers, president of the college, who will speak on "The Aims of Education."

Students honored will be those who have been selected for honorary fraternities during the past year, holders of special scholarships and grants and a special American Assn. of University Women award to be presented to a senior girl.

Crowning of the May Queen and Prince Charming will highlight the activities in the afternoon at May Fete.

Also featured will be the intra-sorority and intra-fraternity sings, the revealing of the poetry contest winner and the tapping of new Cardinal and Blue Key members.

The Convocation is under the direction of the Honors Committee, headed by Dr. Harold E. Hall, and current Blue and Cardinal Key members are in charge of the May Fete activities.

Stocks Show Narrow Gains

New York (AP) — The stock market squeezed out a small advance Thursday to reach new high ground for the year.

Some leading issues rose fractions to more than a point. Losses were mostly in fractions.

The market followed Wednesday's strong rally by moving higher throughout the session, until moderate profit taking developed in the final 30 minutes.

Oils, steels and various specialties moved upward with some vigor. Near the close steels became irregular and some oils turned to the downside. International oils gradually held their gains.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cent to $167.90, its second 1958 high in as many days. Theavstocks rose 20 cents to $167.90, its second 1958 high in as many days. The average is at the highest since Oct. 2, 1957, but far under last year's peak of $188.80.

The AP industrial component gained 80 cents, while rails were down 30 cents and utilities off 10 cents.

Trading amounted to 2,630,000 shares compared with Wednesday's 2,900,000 shares.

Strength in oils and steels was attributed by some to reports these industries may be at or near the bottom of their downturn.

Gains outnumbered losses 532 to 387 with 258 issues unchanged out of 1,177 stocks traded. There were 148 new highs for the year and 9 lows.

The American Stock Exchange was irregularly higher on turnover of 850,000 shares compared with Wednesday's 830,000 shares.

BOND MARKET

New York (AP)—Long range U.S. government bonds declined again Thursday while corporates milled inconclusively to wind up slightly higher.

Market experts attributed the decline in governments to profit-taking and a general exodus of stock market speculative interests who had shifted to the bond market during its recent rise. Trading volume was described as fair.

Utilities and foreign dollar bonds leaned toward the upside in the corporate list; investment quality issues were mixed with a shade toward the downside. Industrials and rails were irregular in a narrow range.

Trading amounted to $5,789,000 par value on the big board, compared to $5,490,000 Wednesday.

Trade In Grains Finishes Lower

Chicago (AP)—Renewal of export business in soybeans held that futures market fairly steady on the Board of Trade Thursday but all grains except oats finished with losses.

The advance of a cent a bushel or more in all the corn contracts Wednesday was an invitation to profit-takers Thursday and they accepted. At the close, the gains were virtually wiped out.

Along with the profit-taking, though, were mildly bearish advices that producer offerings of the grain on cash markets had increased slightly and that the government next Monday will resume sales of off-grade corn at country bin sites.

That is the day, too, that the new export subsidy plan for corn becomes effective and traders were centering chief interest on that. Corn prices recently have been at their highest levels since last November as a result of government approval of the program.

Most dealers were of the opinion the program will serve to maintain relatively strong corn prices but few expected any substantial further advance in view of burdensome stocks already in commercial positions.

At the close, wheat was ⅜-⅞ cent a bushel lower, corn ⅝-1 cent lower, oats unchanged to ⅜ higher, rye 1½-1¼ lower, soybeans ½ lower to ¼ higher, and lard unchanged to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher.

PATE WARNS

He Says Marine Corps Could Get 'Bum's Rush'

Washington (AP) — Gen. Randolph M. Pate attacked President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan Thursday as a potential threat to the life of the Marine Corps.

The President's proposal that laws spelling out the roles of each military service be repealed, Pate said, raises a real danger that under some future secretary of defense the Marines may be demoted from a fighting force to "simply a ceremonial unit."

Pate is the Marine Corps commandant. His opposition to features of the reorganization bill was the most outspoken voiced by any Pentagon witness who has appeared so far before the House Armed Services Committee.

Death Blow Seen

Approving Pate's stand, Rep. Hebert (D-La) told him he had delivered a death blow "to the unnecessary language in this bill."

At the same time the committee received assurances from Secretary of Defense McElroy that this department has no intention of making any sweeping realignment of the military services or their administration.

Pate emphasized he does not believe "those now in high office" have any intention of reducing the Marine Corps to impotence if the reorganization goes through. But someday the corps could get "the bum's rush," he said.

Kowalski Death Accidental, Says County Attorney

Loup City, Neb. (AP) — The mysterious death of 23-year-old Donald Kowalski, found dead in the yard of his home April 22, has been proven accidental, County Attorney Norman Stevens said.

The county attorney said investigation showed that Kowalski died of a brain hemorrhage resulting from an accident which occurred as he walked toward his home from his parked car about midnight.

The county attorney said it had been determined that Kowalski was in good health when he left his car, but that he either walked or stumbled into a radio antenna mounted in a slanting position on the car of another member of the family. The antenna pierced his eye and entered the cranium. He walked another 30 feet before losing consciousness, the county attorney said.

AF Housing Contract Still Not Signed

Actual construction on 600 Capehart housing units at the Lincoln Air Force Base may not start for several weeks, according to Air Force officials.

Although the contract has been unofficially awarded to the J. J. Fritch firm of Dallas, Tex., it has as yet not been signed. Final plans must be drawn up by the Fritch firm before construction can actually begin.

The Texas firm submitted a bid of $9,956,300 for the project, scheduled to be completed in 18 months after construction begins. The Fritch bid was the 3rd lowest among 8 submitted. Reason for accepting the bid was because alternates had been taken out, officials said. But the alternates were not revealed.

The Air Force has decided to use dry wall construction for the units.

ORDINANCE NO. 6740

AN ORDINANCE amending Section 2 of Ordinance No. 3735 passed May 13, 1940, relating to the use of boats upon lakes in city parks; and repealing said Section 2 of Ordinance No. 3735, passed May 13, 1940, as hitherto existing.

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That Section 2 of Ordinance No. 3735, passed May 13, 1940, be and it hereby is amended to read as follows:

"Section 2. PERMIT TO USE BOATS ON LAKE. It shall be unlawful for any person to place, have, use, or operate any boat upon any lake within any park owned or controlled by the City, without first having applied for and obtained a permit so to do from the Superintendent of Parks of the City; provided that a dealer in boats, doing business in the City, in lieu of obtaining a permit for each boat owned by him, may apply for and obtain a dealer's demonstration permit from the Superintendent of Parks, which shall entitle him to place, have, use or operate any boat upon any such lake solely for the purpose of testing and demonstrating. No permit shall be granted until the applicant has complied with the provisions and requirements of this ordinance, and has paid the fee therefor in an amount fixed by resolution of the City Council."

Section 2. That Section 2 of Ordinance No. 3735, passed May 13, 1940, as hitherto existing, be and it hereby is repealed.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

ORDINANCE NO. 6742

An Ordinance creating Paving District No. 1560, defining the limits thereof, establishing the width of the roadway to be paved and the width of the grading to be done, providing for curbing, guttering, and relaying of sidewalks, providing for the payment of the cost thereof, designating the property to be benefited, and repealing all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith.

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Sec. 1. That Paving District No. 1560, of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, be and the same is hereby created; that said Paving District shall include all that portion of 36th Street lying between the south curb line of Laura Avenue and the north curb line of Randolph Street in said City, and the following described real estate benefited, to-wit: Lots 49, 50, 51, 52, 53 and 70, and the east one-half of Lot 69, all in Lyman Park.

The roadway to be paved in said District shall be a strip 8 feet in width west of and adjacent to the present 25 feet wide paved roadway in the aforesaid portion of 36th Street; grading to be from lot line to lot line, and the cost of grading, curbing, guttering, and paving the same, including the cost of grading, curbing, guttering, and paving the intersections and returns, and the cost of grading the sidewalk space and relaying sidewalks and all expenses incidental to all of said improvement shall be assessed against the property benefited in said District in proportion to the benefits, not exceeding the cost thereof.

Sec. 2. That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith be and the same hereby are repealed.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

Starkweather Insanity Plea Seen

An "innocent by reason of insanity" plea is expected to be entered for mass killer Charles Starkweather Monday before his trial on 2 murder charges starts.

Defense attorney T. Clement Goughan, who with William F. Matschullat will defend the 19-year-old redhead, said Thursday that if he and Matschullat believe such a plea should be entered it will be done regardless of Starkweather's wishes.

Starkweather and his family are reportedly balking at such a plea, but it has been considered certain that the insanity plea will be entered anyway. Such a plea, in addition to the innocent plea already entered, would place the burden on the prosecution to prove Starkweather sane, Gaughan said. Psychiatrists for both the defense and prosecution are expected to testify at the trial.

Gaughan has said he believed the trial will last about 3 weeks, and that he will call about 15 defense witnesses. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele has listed more than 60 prospective witnesses but is not expected to call that many to the stand. The only prosecution witness who has been subpoenaed to appear is Dep. Sheriff William Romer of Casper, Wyo., who helped capture Starkweather Jan. 29 near Douglas, Wyo.

Christensen Seeks Debate With Haynes

Lincoln Star Special

Omaha—Third District Republican congressional candidate Herman Christenson of Fremont challenged Merle Haynes of South Sioux City, one of his primary opponents, to a debate on the legitimacy of his candidacy.

Christensen, scoffing a charge that he is a Democratic-engineered candidate aimed at assuring renomination for incumbent Rep. Robert Harrison of Norfolk, said he would pay half the costs for a debate with either opponent on "any of the issues" in the campaign.

"You can bet your bottom dollar I'm a Republican," Christensen told the Star. "And I'm out to win," the retired postal employe said.

Haynes had charged that Christensen was urged to file in order to split the vote between challengers to Harrison.

Democrats, Haynes had said, hope to see Harrison win again so that they might confront him in the general election with Lawrence Brock of Wakefield (one of 3 Democratic candidates), who lost to Harrison in 1956 by only 246 votes.

Cooler Weather Forecast

Much below normal temperatures in the northeast two-thirds of Nebraska, and below normal temperatures in the southwest, are predicted for the next 30 days in this map prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau. The precipitation map shows above normal moisture on the southern edge of the state and near normal elsewhere. (AP Wirephoto.)

Lincoln Sowers Report 'No Talk Of Recession'

Wood River, Neb. — The Lincoln Sowers finished their 3-day goodwill tour to 25 Nebraska communities reporting that "there is no talk of depression."

Fair skies climatic-wise and economy-wise were reported outstate by the traveling Chamber of Commerce crew which visited 8 communities Thursday before returning to Lincoln.

At Gothenberg, where 135 attended a luncheon honoring the Sowers, a "Business Is Good" campaign was in progress among merchants to convince pessimists.

Homer Loutzenheiser, past president of the Gothenberg Chamber presided, and Joe Luchsinger presented the Lincoln visitors.

Afternoon stops were made at Elm Creek, where 300 turned out including Chamber Secretary M. A. Rishall and School Supt. Paul Wilmot and Gibbon where J. D. Bishop and Martin Dunklau, Lions Club president and secretary, and 400 townspeople met the Lincolnites.

At Shelton, 300 people and a band directed by Bonnie Range met the Lincolnites.

Last stop on the tour was Wood River where the school pep band and 400 turned out.

During the morning, after an overnight stop at Ogallala, the Sowers visited Paxton, where Mayor Bernard Berggren and Editor Kenneth Newcomb and a crowd of 100 greeted them; Sutherland, where 450 turned out and Chamber President Vincent Thomas and Mayor H. E. Moore were present, and Hershey, where school was dismissed and 250 citizens met the busses.

Reorganization Plan Is Opposed By Navy League

San Francisco (AP) — The Navy League, in convention here, Thursday adopted a resolution opposing strongly President Eisenhower's proposal to reorganize the Defense Department.

The league, an unofficial civilian organization, declared its opposition to any plan that might lead to a single chief of staff or a general staff setup. The resolution favoring retention of the present military setup, was approved by all but 6 of the 600 delegates.

Convention headquarters later distributed a page headed "statement of John L. Bergen," saying Eisenhower's plan could lead to dictatorship.

Bergen of New York City, president of the National Navy League, called reporters and disavowed the statement.

Berle Will Return To TV Next September

Hollywood (AP) — Comedian Milton Berle will return to television with his own weekly half-hour comedy show next September, the National Broadcasting Co. said.

Berle, who has a 30-year contract with NBC, has been making guest appearances since his own hour-long show went off the air 2 years ago.

NBC said Berle is scheduled for 9 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays. He will be sponsored by a food company.
